OBJECT TO NOMINATIONS

Members of Union Party Committee File Protests in Harrisburgh.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 24.—Objections to the certificate of nomination of Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker, William M. Brown and Isaac B. Brown, as nominees of the Union party for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs, were filed in the Dauphin county court today by counsel for Alexander F. Thompson of Lykens, member of the Union party state committee.

The objections set forth that the regular Union party state convention, held at Musical Fund hall, Philadelphia, on September 3, was broken up by a mob which prevented the organization of the convention and rendered it impossible to transact any business; that the regular delegates adjourned to the Continental hotel and nominated Robert E. Pattison, George W. Guthrie and Lewis Emery, Jr. Judge Simonton fixed next Tuesday for a hearing.

Objections were filed today to the certificate of nomination of Samuel L. Mawhinney and Benjamin F. Anderson, Democratic candidates for assembly in the Third Allegheny district.

Pittsburgher Expressed Sorrow for Suffering in South Africa in Donating $100,000 for Their Relief.

LETTER FROM BOTHA ACKNOWLEDGING GIFT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from The Hague today confirms the report that the donor of the $100,000 sent to Gen. Botha for the relief of destitute Boers was Henry Phipps, Jr., of Pittsburgh, a director of the Carnegie Steel Company, and not "Arthur White," as announced by the general in Rotterdam Monday. The money, however, was sent through Arnold White. Mr. Phipps sailed for New York today from Southampton on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

In notifying Gen. Botha of the gift, Mr. Phipps wrote from Beaufort castle, Scotland, September 20, that he and his family had followed the course of the war with anxious hearts and were eager for the sake of both sides that a just ending might be made.

"Now that the war is over," continued Mr. Phipps, "it is a privilege, and I believe a duty, to do something to relieve the sufferings caused by the war. I feel that the best service I could render would be to provide $100,000 for the relief of the Boer widows and young orphans fund, to be distributed by you and two others. My desire is that the temporary misery of the women and children should be relieved and at the same time I trust nothing will be done which could justly be described as unfriendly to Great Britain."

Botha Returns Thanks.

Gen. Botha, in his reply, dated from Brussels, September 21, acknowledging this "most generous and unexpected gift," says:

"I have not the slightest hesitation in giving you assurance that the money will be used solely and entirely philanthropically, and that it will in no way be applied to do anything which could be justly described as unfriendly to Great Britain. Having laid down our arms and carried out loyally, as our late enemies admit, the terms to which we subscribed at Pretoria, we made peace in the fullest sense of the word, and my only object now is to try to alleviate, as much as in my power lies, the misery in which my countrymen find themselves after a war that has entirely ruined them and made thousands of widows and orphans who have no means of livelihood, so that my people may be restored to happiness and contentment in the countries which are their and my only home.

"I am the more thankful and more grateful to you for your generous gift, as it immediately contributes so largely to make thousands of unhappy people happier and will gladden so many hearts. Your generosity will always be most thankfully remembered by me and all those who are to benefit thereby. In behalf of them as well as Gen. Delarey and myself, I tender you our deepest thanks, and may the Lord reward you."

Chamberlain Has Regrets.

Gen. Botha suggested that, besides himself and Gen. Delarey, whom Mr. Phipps appoints to disburse the fund, a third trustee should be chosen from among J. Rose-Innes, attorney general of the Transvaal colony; Sir Richard Solomon, legal adviser of the Transvaal administration, and Sir Hamilton Gould-Adams, lieutenant governor of the Orange River colony.

Attached to the correspondence is a letter from Colonial Secretary Chamberlain to Arnold White saying that, as he understands Mr. Phipps' gift is purely philanthropic, he will be willing to render any assistance in his power to secure its proper administration, even though the fund is confined to assisting the Boers. Mr. Chamberlain points out that the fund naturally would appeal more strongly to English sympathy if its object was to assist all the widows and orphans who have suffered through the war without distinction of races or politics.

It is said that Mr. Lehman, publisher of the memoirs of former President Kruger, has given Mr. Kruger $150,000 to be devoted entirely to the Boer funds.

Appeal to the World.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 24.—The Boer generals, Botha, DeWet and Delarey, have issued a manifesto in the shape of an appeal to the civilized world. This document recalls how, after the terrible struggle in South Africa and the Boers were compelled to accept the British terms of peace, the generals were commissioned to proceed to England and appeal to the new government to allay the distress which is devastating the colonies, and, in the event of the failure of the mission, to appeal to the civilized world for charitable contributions.

Continuing, the generals say that, having failed to induce Great Britain to grant further assistance, it only remains for them to address themselves to the people of Europe and America.

"The small Boer nation," goes on the manifesto, "can never forget the help it received in its dark hours of suffering. Our people are completely ruined. It has been impossible to make a complete inventory, but we are convinced that at least 30,000 houses on Boer farms and many villages were burned or destroyed by the British during the war. Everything was destroyed and the country was completely laid waste. The war demanded many victims, the land was bathed in tears and our orphans and widows were abandoned. We are appealing to the world for contributions to assist the destitute and help in the education of children.

"The generals repudiate all desire to inflame the minds of the people, and declare:

"The sword is now sheathed, and all differences are silent in the presence of such great misery."

They say the small amount given by Great Britain even if multiplied tenfold would not suffice to cover the war losses alone.

CARNEGIE COMPANY LOSES BY FORGERIES

Peculations of a London Bookkeeper Will Probably Amount to $75,000.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Sept. 24.—L. H. Greig, a bookkeeper in the London offices of the Carnegie Steel Company, who was remanded on Friday last on the charge of forging checks amounting to $9,500, purporting to have been signed by Col. Millard Hunsiker, chairman of the Nickel corporation, was again remanded today, after a brief hearing. Counsel for the prosecution said that probably others were implicated in the case, which promised to develop largely. Their information disclosed that not only had forgeries been committed, but embezzlement and theft of correspondence from Pittsburgh to the Carnegie company.

Counsel handed in forged checks for $90,000 and $50,000, respectively. He said the forgeries were all of great magnitude. The prisoner, he said, kept up a lavish establishment at Kingston-on-Thames, and steps were being taken to prevent the removal of his handsome furniture.

Counsel also handed the magistrate a letter from a prisoner in Exeter jail, which, the magistrate said, threw quite a new light on the case.

Counsel added that an examination of the books showed not only that Greig's forgeries were for a very large amount, but that there had been an extensive falsification of the books. The prisoner had apparently been carrying on large businesses. At various addresses in the city the police have seized documents and correspondence. They also discovered that chloride of lime had been used in erasing names from checks.

Col. Hunsiker told a representative of the Associated Press subsequently that some of the money had been recovered, but that the loss would probably amount to $75,000.

Col. Hunsiker went from Pittsburgh to London about four years ago to take charge of the Carnegie Steel Company's business there. Before leaving this city he was at the head of the foreign sales department of the Carnegie Company.

CHURCH TELLERS ARE SWORN IN BY NOTARY PUBLIC

Bitter Contest for Trustees in Greensburg Congregation

FORMER BOARD IS RE-ELECTED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Greensburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—So closely were the lines drawn between two factions striving to get control of the government of the First Methodist Episcopal church at a congregation meeting last night to choose a board of seven trustees, the tellers were sworn to the performance of their duties by a notary public. The election last night was a climax to a struggle that has been going on for some time in this staid old congregation between the board of trustees and a younger element of the congregation.

The difficulty had its start almost a year ago, it is stated, when at the sessions of the general conference the church rules were changed, giving the power to choose trustees to the congregation instead of vesting it in the pastor of the charge, as heretofore, if the congregation so desired. The management of the affairs of the church by the trustees was distasteful to a few members of the congregation, it is claimed, and the overthrow of the board was then planned.

A week ago at a congregational meeting it was decided that the congregation elect the trustees and the opposition then began to work diligently for the defeat of the members of the board, all of whom were known to be seeking re-election. It is said that a house-to-house canvass of the members of the congregation was made to create opposition to the trustees. It is reported that one story told, that it was believed would prove effective in defeating the board, was that they favored the moving of the church from its present site on the main thoroughfare of the town to a less prominent location.

At the meeting last night the membership was well represented. Fully two hours were devoted to discussing the differences between the factions, it is said. The opposition to the old board was plainly stated and the defense of the trustees was just as sharply worded, it is reported. When it came to voting it was learned that the trustees had prepared ballots upon which their names were printed. Objection was made to the use of the ballots, but after a lengthy discussion they were adopted and additional nominations were made.

When the election board had been appointed the faction opposed to the trustees asked that the officers be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. The trustees made no objection to this and B. Frank Beatty, a notary public and a member of the congregation, administered the oaths.

The election resulted in the choosing of the entire old board: Dr. D. A. Arter, J. J. Wirsing, W. Scott Lane, James S. Bearom, S. R. Patterson, D. M. Irwin and Jacob Kepple. It was after midnight when the result was announced and the candidates who ran in opposition to the board were badly beaten, the majorities of the winners averaging over 50 votes.

The congregation is one of the oldest and most substantial in Greensburg, and no previous factional fights had ever occurred.

EMPEROR REPORTED DEAD

Correspondent of a Paris Newspaper Hears That Ruler of Korea Has Expired.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—In a dispatch from Seoul, Korea, the correspondent of the Figaro says it is reported that the emperor of Korea is dead.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Seoul, last Monday, said the celebration of the anniversary of the coronation of the emperor, Yi Hieung, had been postponed in consequence of the spread of cholera there, but the real reason of the postponement was alleged to be lack of funds.

Yi Hieung succeeded to the throne in 1864. He assumed the title of emperor in 1897. It was reported in 1898 that the emperor and the crown prince of Korea had been poisoned. Both recovered. It was then believed that the poisoner was a lady of the emperor's household, and she was supposed to have been actuated by jealousy or political motives.

LOOTED HOUSE AND HAULED THE PLUNDER AWAY

Three Men Took $900 Worth of Furnishings in Daylight.

RESIDENTS LOOKED IN ASTONISHMENT

In broad daylight, while the governess and children were playing about the house, three men entered the residence of Mrs. Claire Pitcairn of No. 2552 Fifth avenue on Friday afternoon and stole tables, chairs, sideboards, carpets and bric-a-brac valued at $900, and, loading them in wagons, drove away. The men not only ransacked the house, but took the keys from the governess and ransacked the boarders' rooms. They also ill-treated Mrs. Pitcairn's two little girls.

Mrs. Pitcairn had left her house only a few minutes when a large man appeared and said that Mrs. Pitcairn had sent him there to get some furniture. Governess Alice Hoburg let him in. He called two men, who drove up with wagons. After arranging the vehicles they entered the house.

The men began operations in the dining room. They pulled the table cloth and dishes off the table and threw them in a heap on the floor. The dining table was loaded in the wagon. They tore up the carpets in the dining room and hallway. The parlor was then entered and the chandelier was torn from its connections in the ceiling. Governess Hoburg remonstrated with the men, but it was of no use. They told her to mind her business.

They demanded the keys for the other rooms. When she refused the large man tore them from her neck, where they were hanging. Several rooms in the second story were entered and pieces of bric-a-brac and furniture wer taken and loaded in the wagon.

James Shoures, a boarder, came home and when he went to his room he found the men trying to open his trunk. He demanded to know what they were doing there. They swore at him and left the room. Little Clara Pitcairn, 8 years old, was pushed down stairs and badly hurt.

The men had loaded about $900 worth of household effects on the wagon when their operations were soon brought to a close by the return of Mrs. Pitcairn and the men jumped on the wagons and drove away.

The matter was reported to Superintendent of Police McAleese, but his men have been able to learn nothing. There were no names or numbers on the wagons.

TROOPS FALL BACK.

Capt. Pershing Finds the Task of Subduing Moros Not So Easy as the Army Expected.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—That the task of reducing the Moros is proving difficult, is indicated by this cable dispatch, received today by the war department from Gen. Chaffee:

"Capt. John J. Pershing to Vicars: Unable to reach Macin forts. Water and swamps prevented."

The dispatch means that Capt. Pershing has been compelled to retreat to his base at Camp Vicars and that the Moro position is much stronger than was believed by army officers.

SURGEONS GIVE ROOSEVELT ABOUT TEN DAYS TO RECOVER

He Stands Trip to Washington Splendidly and His Wound Is in Condition to Heal Very Rapidly.

NOW IN WASHINGTON CITY UNDER CARE OF HIS WIFE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—Secretary Cortelyou at 9:20 o'clock made the following statement concerning President Roosevelt's condition:

"The president's physicians report that he stood the trip home very well, and it is believed that the local inflammatory symptoms will subside in a week or 10 days if the leg is kept absolutely at rest."

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.

A Washington special to the Herald says:

President Roosevelt is back in the national capital and is tonight resting at the "temporary White house," No. 22 Jackson place, under the watchful care of one whom he considers to be the best nurse in the world—Mrs. Roosevelt.

The condition of the president's abscess on the left leg remains much the same as last night when he started on his special train from Indianapolis. It is not giving him any pain, and he passed the day without any fever. His physicians believe no further trouble or inconvenience will ensue except that which will result from the president being compelled to keep to his room for a week or 10 days.

It was learned today that the president had a slight fever yesterday, which may have been due to the wound or which may have been caused by the early and late hours he had been keeping for several days and the extraordinary exertions his enthusiastic western audiences compelled him to make.

Passed Pittsburgh Asleep.

The trip of the president's special was a quiet one. The train reached Pittsburgh at 7:40 this morning. A telegram was put on the train at Pittsburgh from Mrs. Roosevelt, saying she had left Oyster Bay for Washington. There was quite a crowd of railroad men and travelers at the Union station to see the train roll in and out, but the blinds were still down and the president was asleep. He awoke shortly after 8 o'clock and had his usual breakfast at 9. His appetite was excellent.

The wound was doing so well that Dr. Lung did not even examine it today, permitting the bandages to remain exactly as they were when the president left St. Vincent's hospital. The president made the journey in bed. The bedstead was of brass, placed crosswise in the state room which Mr. Roosevelt occupied, with the head to the window.

The president read the newspapers, which were brought to him at various stops en route, and the rest of the time he devoted to reading "Bendennis." He said the only consolation he had for being an involuntary invalid was that it gave him an opportunity to renew acquaintance with such old friends.

Reception to His Party.

During the run from York to Baltimore the president gave a reception to all of the members of his party. They went in in batches of four and five, because the stateroom was only large enough to comfortably hold that number. The president greeted his guests with great cordiality, accepted their regrets at the disappointment of himself and his western friends at the abandonment of his trip, and was thanked by all for the exceedingly pleasant and agreeable time they had enjoyed while traveling in his company.

To all of his callers the president said it was a matter of great regret that he was compelled to disappoint the people of Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska and northern Ohio and Missouri, all of whom, he knew, took a special interest in him, because for many years he had been regarded as one of them. He said he hoped months hence to cover a portion of the itinerary at least which he abandoned now with so much regret. He spoke with the greatest pleasure of his visit to Cincinnati, Detroit and Indianapolis.

One of the president's friends on the train reminded him that some of the newspapers have been objecting to presidential tours because of the danger that was constantly being incurred from railroad and other accidents were seizing on this as an additional support for their argument. The president ridiculed the idea. He has always held, with McKinley and every other president, that the citizens of the country are entitled to see their chief magistrate now and then.

The president alluded to a remark once made by President Lincoln when the country objected to his traveling about and making speeches. Lincoln's remark was: "I suppose I should be safer in an iron cage, but if I were in an iron cage it would interfere with the public and the public business."

No Iron Cage for Roosevelt.

The president hopes to be able to move about his room in three or four days, but he seems to be willing to be guided entirely by the advice of his doctors.

The train ran on a slow schedule and reached Washington at 6:30 this evening. There was quite a crowd at the station to see the president come home.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who arrived by the Pennsylvania railroad about 3:30, was driven to the station in the white house carriage. Surgeon General Rixey of the navy also was waiting, as was Chief Wilkie of the secret service and several of the white house ushers. Mrs. Roosevelt's greeting of her husband was not observed by the curious crowd because the blinds in the president's stateroom had been drawn.

When all was ready for the president to leave the train Mrs. Roosevelt was escorted to the carriage by Secretary Cortelyou. The president had been dressed in a business suit and was carried from the train by Drs. Lung and Robinson, Assistant Secretary Loeb and Assistant Secretary Barnes. As the quartet descended the steps with their burden the president cheerily exclaimed:

"I am not so bad as I look."

Carried Into the House.

As he passed down the line that had been formed through the crowd he recognized several acquaintances and greeted them heartily. A wheel chair had been provided to convey him from the private car to the carriage.

With Mrs. Roosevelt he drove quickly to the "white house," No. 20 Jackson place, and was again carried up the steps into his room. A small crowd was waiting in front of the house and he spoke to several persons whom he recognized, assuring them that he was in splendid condition and not at all sick.

President Roosevelt enjoyed a good dinner this evening, the diet being regulated by the doctor.

Surgeon General Rixey and Drs. Lung and Urie dressed the wound early in the evening. It was washed out completely and the doctors could discover no unfavorable symptoms. The president's temperature continued normal. None of the doctors will remain with him tonight and a trained nurse is not considered necessary.

Attorney General Knox, who had not seen the president since he went to Europe to examine the Panama canal title, called about 9 o'clock. When he came downstairs he reported the president to be in splendid spirits. When not chatting with Mrs. Roosevelt the president was reading a book.

"He's the most cheerful invalid I ever saw," said the attorney general.

The President's Memory of It.

During the forenoon's run, in describing his condition to a caller, the president said he could feel that something had happened when he thought about it, and that was all.

In his talk with his callers the president made known his determination to visit the northwest next spring, when he will extend his trip as far as the coast, during which time he will visit all the states in which he intended to stop on the trip just ended. The president feels very close to the people of the northwest, as many years of his life were spent in that section, and it was here that he raised his regiment of rough riders at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. He will allow nothing to stand in his way of going there in the spring.

He had nothing but kind words to say of the treatment he received from the sisters who have charge of St. Vincent's hospital at Indianapolis, where he was operated upon. One of them was a nurse at Montauk when the general hospital was established on Long Island after

MORE TROOPS ORDERED OUT, MORE WANTED

Ninth Regiment is Now on Duty in Armory at Wilkesbarre.

SOLDIERS NEEDED IN SUSQUEHANNA

Day of Rioting in Anthracite Region and Many Persons Are Injured.

HOUSE DYNAMITED AND TRAIN WRECKED

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 25.—At 4 o'clock this morning, Major Field and two companies of the Thirteenth regiment will leave Olyphant for Forest City, Susquehanna county, to assist Sheriff Maxey, who called on Gov. Stone last night for troops.

The decision to send the Thirteenth men to Sheriff Maxey's aid was arrived at early this morning, during a conference between Col. Watres and Gov. Stone.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—Another call for troops was received by the governor tonight, after one new regiment had been ordered out during the day. Sheriff Maxey of Susquehanna county is the latest official to ask for troops, and Sheriff Jacobs is the official whose request for troops was granted.

Adjt. Gen. Stewart issued an order at 2:30 this afternoon to Col. Dougherty of the Ninth regiment to report with his command for duty to Gen. Gobin, who is in charge of the troops in the anthracite coal region.

The Ninth headquarters at Wilkesbarre and for the present the regiment will encamp in the vicinity of that city. The Fourth regiment will be held in readiness if additional troops are needed.

Troops in Field.

At present there are four full regiments, two companies of another and two troops of cavalry in the field, being located in five of the ten anthracite counties. The Thirteenth regiment is camped at Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton; the Ninth is quartered at its armory in Wilkesbarre; the Eighth regiment and the Second Philadelphia city troop are under canvas on the top of a hill overlooking Shenandoah; one battalion of the Twelfth regiment and the governor's troop are in the Panther creek valley, and one battalion of the Twelfth is preserving order in the city of Lebanon, where the iron and steel workers are on strike.

While there has been no big general riot the disturbance has been of such a serious nature as to cause the authorities much apprehension. Reports are coming in from every section of non-union men and others being either shot or clubbed. Houses of workmen have been burned or dynamited, and attempts have been made to hold up coal trains or derail them.

Coal is being shipped from many parts of the coal fields to market, but compared with the normal output, the quantity is insignificant. The output for this week will be considerably less than the average normal production of one day, which is about 200,000 tons.

Several Shots Fired.

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 24.—An urgent request for troops was made tonight to Gov. Stone by Sheriff Maxey of Susquehanna county. This morning No. 2 colliery of the Hillside Coal and Iron Company at Forest City resumed operations, and this evening as the men were returning from work they were set upon by a mob of between 200 and 300 men, women and boys and followed to their homes and pelted by sticks and stones. Shots were fired on each side, but none of them took effect.

After the men were driven to their homes the mob surged through the streets, and by order of the burgess, all of the saloons in the borough were closed. Sheriff Maxey called the leading men of the borough together, and after conferring with them, asked the governor for troops.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Sept. 2.—In compliance with the request of Sheriff Jacobs and numerous citizens of Luzerne county, Gov. Stone at noon today ordered the Ninth regiment, N. G. P., to mobilize at Wilkesbarre. Three hours after the order had been received Col. Dougherty had the regiment, with the exception of the Hazelton companies, ready for the field.

Mineworkers in Regiment.

There are quite a number of mine workers in the regiment, but all responded readily to the call. The soldiers will remain in the armory tonight, ready to respond to any call.

comment on Sheriff Jacobs' action in asking for troops. He said the presence of the militia would not interfere with any of his plans, which were to push the strike to a successful issue.

Sheriff Jacobs in a statement issued to the public explains at length why he called upon the governor for troops. He says the outbreaks were becoming too numerous and with the limited number of men at his command he could not cope with the unlawful assemblies that gathered in various places.

A Central Railroad of New Jersey coal train which was moving out of a mine siding at Warrior Run last night was derailed by an open switch which had been tampered with by unknown parties. The crew escaped by jumping and the cars were piled up in a big wreck. The coal was intended for New York.

Fire Boss Shot in Leg.

A big crowd of strikers attempted to prevent the non-union men employed at the Exeter colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Sturmerville from going to work this morning. A number of deputy sheriffs in charge of Thomas Burke tried to protect the workmen. A fight followed in which several shots were fired. David Richards, a fire boss, was shot in the leg and David Harris and John P. Stroh were beaten on the heads with clubs. Coal and iron police finally dispersed the mob. Magistrate Ehret of West Pittston issued warrants this afternoon for the arrest of 25 ringleaders engaged in the riot.

A crowd of 500 men and boys refused to allow non-union workmen to cross the Susquehanna river bridge at Nanticoke this morning. A deputy read the riot act and the miners dispersed.

The presence of the military has already had a good effect. Everything is quiet tonight.

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 24.—Three calls were made on the Thirteenth regiment today to quell disturbances. The first came at 9 a. m. from Johnson No. 2 colliery at Priceburg, where the strikers were holding up a coal train with obstructions on the track and threats against the train hands. Maj. B. Rush Field with two companies dispersed the crowd.

Two Striking Arrested.

This evening the same soldiers were called to the same place to disperse a crowd that was chasing non-union men returning from work. Two strikers, one with an ax and the other with a knife, were arrested by the soldiers.

About 5:30 p. m. two Hungarians were returning from work at the Temple Company's Sterrick Creek colliery in Jessup, and were chased by a crowd of strikers. The fugitives fired several shots, and this brought the whole neighborhood to the scene. Immediately a general hunt was organized by the strikers and their sympathizers, with non-union men coming from all the adjacent collieries as their quarry.

Half a dozen different groups of non-union men were chased. Shots were freely exchanged. While the neighborhood was still in an uproar a couple of companies from the camp at Olyphant arrived and the huntsmen proceeded to seek cover.

Charles Webster of Peckville had three ribs broken and his head battered; Charles Polley of Peckville had his head badly gashed with a stone. Fred Mason of Olyphant was badly used up by blows from clubs and stones. All three worked at the Sterrick Creek. It was reported to Col. Watres that four of the strikers had been shot by the fleeing workmen, but this could not be verified.

Ready for Emergency.

Col. Watres had patrols out in all directions at night looking for disturbers and keeps two trains on two different railroads constantly under steam to answer calls for protection.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Sept. 24.—The home of Henry Gottschall, a deputy sheriff at Gilberton, Pa., was dynamited today. The building was wrecked. Gottschall's wife and two children were in the building, but escaped unhurt.

TAMAQUA, PA., Sept. 24.—Deputy Sheriff Smith, speaking for Sheriff Beddal today said:

"You can infer how serious the sheriff considers the situation when I tell you that he has asked Gov. Stone to place the county under martial law. The sheriff thinks the time has come to take drastic action before the situation becomes so serious that it will be uncontrollable."

When asked if Sheriff Beddall's request that martial law be declared in Schuylkill county would be granted, Gen. Gobin answered that he had the matter under consideration and would make his decision this afternoon, after a telephone conference with Gov. Stone.

SHENANDOAH, PA., Sept. 22.—Asked tonight about the request made by Sheriff Beddall to place Schuylkill county under martial law, Gen. Gobin answered: "I did not consider the proposition; am not considering now, and do not intend to consider it. I have nothing to do with it. It is entirely a question for the governor to decide."

All Quiet at Lebanon.

LEBANON, PA., Sept. 24.—Everything is quiet here tonight. The troops are still on duty and the colored iron workers imported from the south are helping to operate the mills of the American Iron and Steel Company without molestation from outsiders, though there is much regret expressed as it becomes apparent to the public that the statement made yesterday that the negroes would be taken away would not be carried out. It is believed by the people that the promise to send them away was done with the intention of gaining time until the arrival of the soldiers.

At police headquarters tonight it was given out as the opinion of the department that as long as the colored iron workers were kept in the employ of the company, the troops would be needed.

PENNYPACKER SPEAKS ABOUT HIS ANCESTRY

They Were Linen Weavers, Just as Are the Men the Judge Addressed.

DEMOCRATS MAKE ISSUE OF HIS BOOTS.

Next Governor of the State Responds to the Toast "Pennsylvania" Before the Workingmen's Protective League.

THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE BUREAU,
Public Ledger Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 24.

Judge Pennypacker made his first regular political speech of the campaign this evening at a dinner given by the Workingmen's Protective Tariff league in Textile hall. There were nearly 300 members and friends present. The tables and walls were gaily decorated with flags and bunting and at each plate were laid a portrait of Judge Pennypacker, portraits of the government members of the league and copies of patriotic songs.

The event was proclaimed a "reception to the state and county candidates on the Republican ticket." The league had entertained in similar manner Govs. Hastings and Stone during their campaigns and the chairman, Martin St. Leger, said Judge Pennypacker would be the third governor who had been the guest of the league.

Besides Judge Pennypacker there were present William M. Brown, candidate for lieutenant governor; Senator Penrose, Congressman Burk and Secretary of Internal Affairs Latta.

Senator Penrose paid quite a tribute to Judge Pennypacker and showed that the laboring classes owed all their prosperity to the supremacy of the Republican party.

Judge's Boots as an Issue.

Judge Pennypacker said:

It is a comfort to me to come here tonight and find that, instead of having a cut-and-dried political affair, as I had anticipated, it is a gathering about tables loaded with goodly cheer, behind which sit men with kindly hearts.

The fact that this, my first speech upon a semi-political occasion in the city of Philadelphia, occurs in Kensington is of a pleasant significance. Forty-six years ago, when a boy of 14 years of age, I was employed in a drug store at the northwest corner of Frankford road and Wood street, in Kensington. I may, therefore, perhaps, claim to be one of you—a Kensington worker.

One of the reasons given for asking for a change in the control of the affairs of Pennsylvania, and incidentally for a change in the control of the affairs of the nation—because, after all, that is the ultimate object—is that the Republican candidate is in the habit of wearing boots. The worthless sheet, miscalled a newspaper, which hires needy young men to prostitute their talents, and hires needy artists to pervert their art, has made of my boots an important political issue. Since they have been given this importance, since it answers my purpose to do so, I shall say to you a few words about by ancestry and under the circumstances that, perhaps, would be otherwise egotism may be forgiven.

The men who came to Germantown in 1683 were in the main weavers of linen. One of my ancestors was given a prize for weaving the first and best piece of linen cloth. So that I may claim that I have a hereditary right, at least by lifting myself up by the strings of my boots, to reach the high places as a worker in this industry which you gentlemen follow.

The Glory of Pennsylvania.

I see that I have been asked to respond to the toast, "Pennsylvania." Pennsylvania is second in the population of all the old American states. If Andrew Carnegie is right, and statistics prove that he is, she is destined ere long to occupy first place. Her affairs are well managed. Her people are honest and God-fearing. They go to church on Sunday, and they send their children to be instructed in the gospel on Sunday afternoon. For the laborer much has she done. If you look over the records you will find at least 58 acts of assembly passed by Pennsylvania legislatures providing for the interests of workingmen. They are protected in their associations, and their safety is provided for, since it is required that in every mill there shall be a fire escape.

When the workingman brings suit there is no exemption. When suit is brought against him he is entitled to that exemption. For 15 years I have been trying cases in the courts of Philadelphia and every time that a wage case is tried it is at the head of the list, so that there may be no unnecessary lapse of time before the workingman recovers his rights.

The three most important events in the history of America, affecting not only our own continent, but the whole of the future of the world, were:

First—The adoption of the Declaration of Independence, which determined that all men shall be free and equal.

Second—The adoption of the Constitution of the United States, which is described as the greatest effort which the mind of man in convention in that manner ever produced.

Third—The battle of Gettysburg, which fixed for all time the fate of this nation. All three of these most important events occurred within the limits of a single state.

William M. Brown, the nominee for lieutenant governor, said:

The Democrats are pretending that there are no national issues. They hope to gain the control of this state in November, and gain the control of the nation in 1904, as they did after the gubernatorial elections of 1882 and 1890. Cleveland and Bryan are praying tonight that Pattison may be elected governor of Pennsylvania.

The Democrats declare that the tariff is the mother of trusts. That is an absolute falsehood. Before there were any trusts we had the tariff, and they were against them.

Pennypacker Likes the Outlook.

Judge Pennypacker and William M. Brown met the members of the Republican city committee, chairmen of the ward committees and prominent party workers this afternoon. All reports indicated a most favorable condition.

Judge Pennypacker said: "I have made a short tour of the state around the edges, so to speak, and I found—everything in excellent condition. While the Pittsburgh situation is somewhat mixed, the factional disturbances there are likely to bring out a larger vote than would otherwise be polled."

the Spanish war, and she reminded the president of the fact that she had often seen him there and had admired him for the way in which he looked after the comforts of his men. The president was delighted at meeting her, and conversed with her for some time.

Wound Should Heal Rapidly.

The present expectation, as stated by a gentleman fully acquainted with the president's condition, is that after 10 days or more of rest the chief executive will be himself again. During that time it will be necessary for him to keep in bed or on a couch in a reclining position so as to give the injured leg complete rest. The wound is in good condition now, and should heal rapidly.

There is an accumulation of business demanding the president's attention, and he will be able to dispose of much of it without serious personal inconvenience. According to present plans, during his period of recovery, the president will spend his time at the temporary White House. Secretary Cortelyou saying tonight that no other arrangements for him had been made.

Mr. Roosevelt expects to view the parade of the Grand Army two weeks from today, but it is not yet known whether he will remain here during the entire interval between now and then.

It may be the latter part of October or early in November before the White House proper will be habitable for the president and his family. It is understood the president insisted upon returning to Washington instead of going back to Oyster Bay, because he felt that he could transact more public business here while recovering the use of his leg.

When Mrs. Roosevelt alighted from her carriage, on arriving from Oyster Bay today, she had a smiling greeting and a cordial handshake for all of the members of the official and domestic force on duty to welcome her back to Washington. It was about 4 o'clock, and Mrs. Roosevelt was quickly recognized and saluted by the crowds of government clerks pouring from nearby department buildings as she hurried into the house. She bowed to right and left as she entered.

Three Prisoners Escape.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—During the absence of Sheriff Davis and his two deputies, and Warden Knee, at the Western penitentiary, three prisoners last night escaped from the Ebensburg jail and have not yet been apprehended. The fugitives are George Steckroth, Altoona; John Kundish and George Schantz, Johnstown. The men made their escape with a key, but how they got it is a mystery.

NO ANTHRACITE COAL.

Householders Will Have Difficulty Getting Any This Winter—Can Use Natural Gas.

The anthracite coal miners' strike is no nearer a settlement now than it was several months ago. Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore and other eastern people are alarmed over the prospect of being unable to get a supply of hard coal this fall and winter. Anthracite furnace coal is now selling for $10 per ton in Philadelphia. It's almost certain there'll be little or no hard coal for sale in Pittsburgh this winter at any price. What will the scores of Pittsburghers who use coal in furnaces do?

Burn natural gas. It's cheaper, cleaner and safer than hard coal and there's no dust, ashes or other work. Costs little to change your furnace. The Philadelphia Company experts will gladly show you how you can save money this winter by burning gas. To all who apply for gas now the company will make free connections and set meter free of charge. Hard coal furnace owners should hurry—there'll be a rush for natural gas burners.

CORONER DID NOT INVESTIGATE.

Verdict of Drowning in a Mysterious Case.

The unknown woman who was found drowned in the Allegheny river early Tuesday morning at the foot of Thirty-sixth street is still unidentified. A dozen men and women called at the morgue yesterday to view the body, but she was not known to them. It is likely that her name will never be discovered.

The body will be buried today. The inquest was held yesterday and a verdict was rendered of accidental drowning. Coroner McGeary has made no attempt to investigate this mysterious case.

Paine's Celery Compound

Cures a Lady Who Was Told That Her Life Depended Upon a Surgical Operation.

The greatest misfortune of the present generation is that wives and mothers are so frequently unfitted for the duties of life and domestic enjoyment by reason of broken-down health and overtaxed systems. The duties of women of all ages are really more worrying and wearing than the troubles met with by men. Social, household, and often business cares press upon women very heavily. In this way the delicate nerves and sensitive organs become deranged, suffering ensues, and life becomes a burden that many carry to the grave.

For the special weaknesses to which women so often fall victims, medical science has provided Paine's Celery Compound. This famed medicine has specific powers for correcting the disorders of the female organism; it maintains health, gives strength, vivacity and good looks, and imparts to the body the elasticity of girlhood. No other medicine can so quickly banish and permanently cure painful and obdurate feminine ills. Mrs. L. S. Long of Flint, Mich., says:

"For 25 years I have been a great sufferer from insomnia, never obtaining more than four nights' sleep in a week. For 16 years life has been a burden because of prolapsus uteri, whose tortures no words can describe and from which no physician gave me any hopes of relief except by an operation. I have also for years been troubled with rheumatism to such an extent in my right shoulder as to nearly disable me.

"Last February I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound in hopes that relief from insomnia and rheumatism might be obtained. After using three bottles of the Compound the rheumatism was better, I could sleep like a child, and, strangest of all, my uterine trouble was cured."

The Extreme of Elegance in Furs.

We are exhibiting an Imperial Russian Sable Automobile Coat in our Millinery Show Window, and the price of it is $7,500.00. It is the finest fur coat in America. This striking example of the elegant in furs goes to show that right in the city of Pittsburg just as fine and handsome fur pieces can be bought as in New York or Paris.

While the fur season is not quite at hand, we are ready with our complete collection, and it is more diversified than ever.

The novelty this season, especially in trimming fur, is petit gris fourrure, something that is very exquisite.

There is no time so apropos for selecting the fur coat, or the fur neckpiece, as when new goods have just been opened. Then the entire collection is before you.

1,800 Yards All Wool Albatross, 45c a Yard.

The soft crepy material so admirable for all the different styles of house gowns, as well as for the Autumn shirtwaist.

The color assortment contains all the pretty shades women like—such as sky-blue, pink, cream white, nile, light gray, castor, old rose, reseda, l'aiglon, cardinal and navy, and the always staple black.

The rough Tailor Suitings and Skirtings—the French, the English and the Scotch weaves. Popular? Nothing so intensely so at present. We believe the cunning little twisted silk curls, scattered here and there over the surface of rich silky panne finish, has much to do with this popularity. Anyhow, they are the cream of the old world looms. Newest and most effective color combinations in over one hundred styles to select from, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50, $3 a yard.

Elegance in Evening Waists.

Lace, Silk Velvets.

$18, $25, $38, $50, $60.

The ideal of daintiness. The culmination of all that is beautiful in model waists.

The most fascinating effects, too many to go into detail, but take these with which to measure your judgment of the elaborate—

All over effects in filmy cream lace, with here and there touches of pink and blue, diverging from a pointed yoke extending out over shoulder, of the same exquisite lace.

Pure white Paon Velvet, trimmed with cream lace medallions, and a yoke effect of lace.

All over Cream Lace relieved by the most beautiful insertings in brilliant Persian effects, in body, sleeves and collar, and the finish around bottom of sleeves and waist is of narrow band of black velvet.

But written description is tiresome. In closing allow us to say most of these waists are in elbow-sleeve style and some of the sleeves are so arranged that they can be made full if so desired.

The New Art Furniture Called "Crafts and Arts."

If there is anything the intelligent Pittsburger admires it is the constant broadening of lines in merchandising and the constant succession of newness.

Thus it is with Furniture—the more new ideas promoted the more pleased are the people who look to have their home furnished with newly designed furniture.

"Arts and Crafts" Furniture is a mingling of the very old—the Mission style of old California and Mexico and the Colonial furniture of old America.

It is massive and handsome, and so thoroughly and strongly put together as to admit of no argument as to its stability.

We are now showing this furniture in all the household pieces, and in the greatest variety. The finish is known as Antwerp Oak, one that is particularly pleasing to the eye, and the collection comprises—

Dining Tables	from $35.00 to $ 72.50
Sideboards	from $50.00 to $135.00
China Closets	from $60.00 to $ 87.50
Dining Chairs	from $ 8.00 to $ 16.00
Library Tables	from $22.00 to $ 90.00
Writing Tables	from $22.00 to $ 33.00
Bookcases	from $38.00 to $ 60.00
Settees in dark and green leather	$20.00
Settees with rush bottom seats	$45.00
Hall Tables	$20.00
Library and Hall Chairs, handsomely carved, many covered with fine leather	from $12.00 to $30.00
Odd Tables	from $12.00 to $18.50
Stein Cases	$50.00

As Parlor Furniture is always open to discussion, we desire to say we are showing some handsome suites in mahogany, gilt and walnut, in the styles of Louis XV. and Louis XVI., the Empire and the more modern styles. The suites consist of three pieces, and we show them in the muslin, $110 up to $325.

For the upholstering, an unlimited variety of finest materials.

A Special Velvet Waist, $5.

But in reality a $6.50 value.

A fine offer that came to us, and which we accepted.

Black with all the latest figures and dots in metallic effects; tucked yoke; bishop sleeves; finished with two-button cuffs; stitched collar with buckle.

There are not so many that they will last any length of time.

Oriental Rugs From $3.75 to $2,500.00.

It is superfluous to say, after the figures shown, that our lines of Oriental Rugs are complete. Will it be news to say there is not another stock of Oriental Rugs like ours in the western part of the state—indeed, in the whole country?

There are only four houses in the country that send a buyer to Asia each year, to gather rugs, and ours is the only store in this part of Pennsylvania.

Our new collection of Oriental Rugs and Oriental Carpets comprise the finest Persian and Turkish weaves. It is superbly rich in old and rare specimens of Kirmanshah Rugs in large sizes; Irans for fine reception halls; Royal Tabreez Rugs in those marvelously artistic small effects; Muskebad Rugs and Serapi Rugs; choice Saraks and those extra fine and large Kazak Rugs; the splendid Mossoul and Guendjehs; those rare old Afghanistan Rugs, the silky and extra large antique Bokharas; the rich rugs from Daghestan, Shirvan and Cabistan.

All these and more—at prices far below what such rugs could be bought for if it were possible to find their counterparts in another collection. The reason: Buying in person from the Oriental owners and importing direct.

We are also liberal collectors of those neat Anatolian Rugs and Mats.

As specimens of our prices for rugs from the far East these are submitted:

MANUFACTURERS GAS COMPANY TO DOUBLE CAPITAL

Purchase of Competing Interests and Extension of Service Planned.

STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE NOVEMBER 24

Proposition to Issue $5,000,000 Additional Stock Will be Laid Before Them—No Deals Are on With Ft. Pitt and Peoples.

Stockholders of the Manufacturers' Light and Heat Company, which recently exhausted the $2,000,000 unissued of its $5,000,000 capital stock to absorb four competing concerns, will on November 24 vote on a proposition for an additional issue of $5,000,000. The directors hope to be empowered to issue all or such amounts as required to take over additional interests and to extend the distributing facilities of the company, principally in Pittsburgh and nearby boroughs.

A new line will be brought to Homestead from the producing fields to supply that community and the line will be carried on to the East End of Pittsburgh, where it is proposed to build a network of distributing lines. Deals are on for the merging of outside producing interests, but officials say that they have not yet taken such shape as to warrant specific announcement.

It has been currently reported several times that deals were on to merge the Fort Pitt Gas Company and the Peoples Natural Gas Company of Pittsburgh. The Peoples has a stock issue of $1,000,000 and the Fort Pitt has authorized capital stock amounting to $2,500,00, of which most has been issued, and has bonds in the sum of $1,000,000.

H. B. Beatty, president and general manager of the Manufacturers Company, said last night that there is no deal on with either of these companies.

As it now stands the Manufacturers Company is said to be under-capitalized in relation to its assets. It has gas rights over 125,000 acres in Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. In the latter state its holdings extend from Fairmont to the Ohio river and as far south as gas development has gone. The company operates over 1,000 miles of pipe lines, and its sales of gas in the best day of the past year aggregated 80,000,000 feet. At Wellsville and East Liverpool the company sells gas to the Fort Pitt Gas Company, which has the distributing lines in those towns.

Present shareholders will have the first call in the purchase of the new stock in proportion to their present holdings. The new stock, like that now issued, will all be common. The company has a bond issue of $6,000,000, issued by the Manufacturers Company when it purchased the Peoples Light and Heat Company of Washington, Pa. Besides the constituent concerns mentioned the Manufacturers is made up of the Manufacturers, Bellevue and Glenfield natural gas companies, which have been liquidated in the reorganizations; the Canonsburg Light and Heat Company and the Waynesburg and Citizens natural gas companies.

ORGANIZED FOR RELIEF.

Trolley Men of West End Division Have Association.

Employes of the West End division of the Pittsburgh Railways Company met last night and perfected the organization of a relief association with 198 charter members. James D. Callery was elected president; Thomas Murray, vice president; W. G. Gish, secretary, and C. J. Braun, Jr., treasurer. The board of managers is composed of John Daly, W. G. Gish, Thomas Archer, Joseph Mangan, U. S. Grounda, Charles Junker, George Pannon and C. J. Hall. Headquarters have been established in the company's building, West Carson street.

The object of the association is to relieve cases of sickness or want among the members.

DR. MURPHY WANTS DIVORCE.

Monongahela Man Names Co-Respondent in Suit at Washington.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Dr. George H. Murphy of Monongahela has brought suit for divorce from Emma B. Murphy. On his petition the court granted a rule on his wife to show cause why their son, George B. Murphy, should not be surrendered to the custody of the father.

In his petition for divorce Dr. Murphy names John F. Blystone, a prominent business man of Monongahela, as co-respondent. The couple was married in 1896 and separated last February.

MAY BE OPPOSED.

Corporations May Find Trouble in Carrying Out Improvements.

If all the improvements and changes planned by the boroughs of Braddock, North Braddock, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and the Pittsburgh Railways Company are made both places will be considerably changed and their business centers removed from their present locations. Among the changes considered are the opening of Verona street, from Braddock to North Braddock by tunneling under the Pennsylvania railroad and through the Anderson property, which is to be donated by the Anderson heirs.

The Pittsburgh Railways Company is to abandon Library street, owing to the many serious accidents that have occurred on it, and the cars will be run to North Braddock from Braddock via Corey avenue and cross the railroad tracks at Second street, where a steel viaduct is to be built.

The Fourth street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad is to be closed, as it is one of the worst crossings on the division and residents of that section of the two boroughs will be compelled to cross the tracks at Second street. Some of the proposed improvements have been acted on by the borough councils, and others are to come up for action soon. Considerable opposition will develop if an attempt is made to close Fourth street, as it is one of the leading avenues of trade to Braddock and merchants in that part of the borough will make a strong protest against it.

HELP FOR THE STRIKERS.

William Little Authorized to Collect Aid for the Anthracite Miners.

Authority was given yesterday by President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America to William Little of the national executive board, in this city, to solicit and receive subscriptions for the anthracite miners now out on strike.

A meeting of the miners at Shire Oaks will be held tomorrow evening, when some trifling differences will be settled. The meeting will be addressed by Uriah Bellingham, acting president, and William Little.

The committee appointed by Iron City council last Thursday has so far failed to report at the miners' headquarters.

CREATORE TRULY A MUSICAL WONDER

WHIRLWIND LEADER WAS HEARTILY WELCOMED.

New Attraction at Exposition Is Sensation of the Day—Nothing Like Him Known Here.

Never in the history of Pittsburgh has there been so sensational a musical offering as that at Exposition music hall last night, when "Creatore" and his band made their appearance. Never before has such a cyclone of applause greeted a band leader as that completely overwhelming Creatore at the conclusion of the sextet from "Lucia." Those who heard Creatore for the first time came away in wonder at the agility of this little band leader, and the melody he brings forth from his players.

Creatore is of less than medium stature and is slender in physique. The most striking feature of his personal appearance is a great head of black hair. He is pale, and a long, drooping, brown moustache hangs over his mouth. His appearance bears out the impression that here is a genius with all the freakishness that marks a musical prodigy.

Creatore has fire and temperament enough to turn an iceberg into life. While directing his band he is wholly and absolutely lost to the world, his only object being to bring out of his music all there can possibly be in it.

It was in the overture of "William Tell" that Creatore was first shown last evening in all his characteristics. As the melody swelled louder and louder, he became more and more totally abandoned to it. His body swayed backward and forward and to the side. His mouth opened and closed, and he seemed to be telling each performer when to play. He stood on his tip-toes and finally leaped from his feet and fairly screamed as the famous composition's loudest strains filled the auditorium. From one side of the band to the other he ran until there seemed to be several Creatores in the air. The hearers raised in their seats, excited with him, and when the end came they fell back almost as exhausted as he when he sank into his chair. It required a moment for the audience to recover sufficiently to applaud.

This afternoon's programs will be as follows:

2 P. M.

March—"Tensing Hearts" ..... Creatore
Overture—"Barber of Seville" ..... Rossini
Cornet solo—"Non E Ver" ..... Mattei

WARFARE IMMINENT BETWEEN FACTIONS

Window Glass Trade Likely to Be Unsettled by Fight Between Rival Labor Organizations.

Internecine warfare among window glass workers may seriously affect the trade. An ultimatum may soon be issued by the Burns organization to the Denny organization which has so far refused to accept the wage proposition made a few days ago. The solution of the entire question is with the Denny workers.

An open meeting was to have been held yesterday afternoon in Turner hall, South Side, but none of the workers appeared. It was charged that the Denny people were warned to stay away. If the matter is not settled before October 4, when the fires of the Independents open, there will be a bitter fight that will cause great trouble to the operators.

The officials of the Denny organization declare they will not abrogate their wage contract with the manufacturers, and that President Burns will not be able to carry out his promise that the fires would not be started before October 15.

FOUR PATENT CASES.

Judge Buffington Hands Down Opinions Finding for the Plaintiff in Each Case.

Judge Buffington yesterday handed down four opinions in the United States circuit court. In the case of the H. & T. Fairbanks Company, which charges the Standard Scale and Supply Company with infringement, the court held that the infringing device was a duplicate of the first claim of the patent. The patent is on a scale lever.

In an opinion in the case of the Best Manufacturing Company against the Lawrenceville Bronze Company and the Republic Iron and Steel Company for infringement on a patent plate for cooling furnace bosh, he finds for the plaintiff. He filed a similar opinion in the case of the Best Manufacturing Company against the Fox Copper and Bronze Company et al., and finds an infringement of patent on a furnace plate.

In the case of the Pfandler Vacuum Fermentation Company versus the Braddock Brewing Company, where exceptions were filed to the auditor's report, he says that $620 17 in the debit side of the auditor's report should be stricken off. Before the fund is distributed objections, if any, will be heard on September 24.

DIED FROM HER BURNS.

Mrs. Nellie Stuchus, Bride of a Month, Poured Gasoline on Kitchen Fire.

Mrs. Nellie Stuchus, a bride of one month, died late yesterday afternoon at Mercy hospital from burns received in an explosion of gasoline at her home in Fifth avenue, Braddock, in the morning. The explosion was caused by Mrs. Stuchus pouring about a half gallon of gasoline on the kitchen fire to hasten it while she was preparing breakfast.

Joseph Stuchus, the husband, is a wire drawer in the Rankin plant of the American Steel and Wire Company. About 6 o'clock he left home to go to work. Some time later his wife arose and poured the oil on the fire. The explosion was heard for several blocks. The oil was scattered over Mrs. Stuchus, and with her clothing ablaze she attempted to escape from the room in the second story, where the couple lived. From the head of the stairs she fell headlong to the bottom, bursting open a door at the foot of the stairs.

The house is owned by Simon Bechtley, whose family occupies the first floor. Mrs. Bechtley heard Mrs. Stuchus scream and fall. With the assistance of William Sheets, who happened to be passing, Mrs. Bechtley extinguished the woman's burning clothing and had her removed to the hospital.

SMALL CROWDS IN TWO PLACES HEAR PATTISON

He Competes Unsuccessfully With Horse Races and Midway at Beaver.

THE FIRST RAINY DAY OF ITINERARY.

A Somewhat Larger Audience in The New Castle Opera House. Guthrie Repeats His Ripper Speech—Congressional Mixup.

By WALTER J. CHRISTY,
Staff Correspondent.

New Castle, Pa., Sept. 24.—Rain, gamblers, horse racing and tom-tom beaters contributed to the troubles of the Democratic spellbinders today. Especially was this true at Beaver Falls, where ex-Gov. Pattison made an address to some 200 persons at the county fair. In New Castle tonight the nominees talked to about 1,000 people.

This is the first rainy day since Pattison started on his whirl around the state. Beaver county Democrats thought it would be a good idea to have Pattison and Guthrie at the fair, and this was the day chosen for their attendance.

When the party reached Beaver Falls this afternoon rain was falling, but the meeting was not abandoned. There was a small crowd at the fair grounds and most of the people were either watching the horse races, huddling around the gambling devices, or visiting the "Midway." Pattison got what was left of the crowd. He was introduced by John M. Buchanan. The governor made a short speech, touching on a few points of his regular address. The meeting was adjourned when he finished.

No Check on Gambling.

Gamblers had things all their own way. Every opportunity for a man to lose money was presented. Pittsburgh talent had the privileges. They are expecting a good day tomorrow, when the Republicans hold their meeting. If the weather is good an immense crowd is promised.

Hartford P. Brown, chairman of the Beaver county Republican committee, was at the fair this afternoon. He said he was there to see what kind of a crowd Pattison had.

Chairman Brown, a close political friend of James H. Cunningham, says Cunningham intends to attack the congressional certificate of nomination filed by Ernest F. Acheson. He will ask the Dauphin county courts to declare that Acheson was not regularly nominated. Meanwhile Cunningham is getting out nomination papers and will be an independent candidate.

The county chairman says if the courts sustain Acheson's nomination the Beaver county organization will not allow Cunningham to be an independent candidate. He admits, however, that Cunningham is a trifle hard to control.

No Effect on State Tickets.

Brown is certain that the mix-up in the congressional contest will not affect the rest of the Republican ticket. He predicts that Pennypacker will have a good majority and that the Republican candidates for assembly will win with ease.

The campaign party was met at Pittsburgh by Charles R. Eckert, ex-Senator W. B. Dunlap and Henry H. Wilson of Beaver county. Eckert is the Democratic nominee for congressman. Had he been permitted to speak at the fair grounds this afternoon he probably would have given the "state issue" orators the chills. Eckert says he is for free trade and wishes the people of the district to know about it.

Wilson is one of the Democratic nominees in Beaver county and he appeared to be looking after the interests of Wilson. His colleague is T. Frank Covert. Wilson is issuing cards with the names of both candidates on them. His name is printed in large, heavy-faced capitals, while that of Covert is not so conspicuous. After Wilson's name is an "X."

The spellbinders reached here about 7:30 o'clock and were met by a large reception committee. The meeting was held at the opera house. The building seats 1,500 people and there were about 500 vacant chairs. J. G. McConaghy was chairman. Speeches were made by Fitzsimmons, Ikeler, Guthrie and Pattison. Mr. Guthrie repeated his "ripper" speech and appealed to Republicans to forsake their party. The other speakers did not leave the beaten path.

This county is so firmly Republican that the Democrats do not hope to carry it. Their organization is bad, while the Republicans have a superb organization. Lawrence will give Pennypacker a good majority and the entire ticket will go through.

Next Tuesday the Republicans will have a big meeting here. This is the home of William Brown, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor. He will make an address and the other speakers will be Charles Emory Smith and Congressman Acheson.

Washington and Greene counties will be visited by the candidates tomorrow.

ORDER WAS PLACED FOR 400,000 BOXES

Window Glass Jobbers Get Glass at Reduction and Surprise the Trade.

The associated window glass jobbers yesterday placed their joint order with the American and Federation Window Glass companies. The contract calls for 400,000 boxes.

The exact price is guarded jealously, and is said to be something less than 5 per cent below the contract price of the previous order for 500,000 boxes. The new order for 400,000 boxes is said to aggregate in value at the factories, $1,400,000, an average of $3 50 the box. This contract makes a total of 1,400,000 boxes that the associated jobbers have jointly placed with the American and Federation companies for last fires' production.

Most, if not all, of the new contract will be fulfilled out of stocks before the factories resume their fires next month. It is understood that the American company will supply 75 per cent of the glass and the Federation company the rest.

WORN OUT, DRAGGED OUT,

Are Most Women in Summer—Pe-ru-na is a Tonic of Efficiency.

JOSEPHINE MORRIS, 236 Carroll St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"Peruna is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I have found it especially helpful to withstand the wear and tear of the hot weather. I have taken it now for two summers and feel that it has kept my system free from malaria, and also kept me from having that worn-out, dragged-out look which so many women have.

"I therefore have no hesitancy in saying that I think it is the finest tonic in the world."—Josephine Morris.

Peruna is frequently used as a mitigation of the effects of hot weather. What a bath is to the skin, Peruna is to the mucous membranes. Bathing keeps the skin healthy, Peruna makes the mucous memranes clean and healthy. With the skin and mucous membranes in good working order, hot weather can be withstood with very little suffering.

Frequent bathing with an occasional use of Peruna is sure to mitigate the horrors of hot weather. Many ladies have discovered that the depression of hot weather and the rigors they have been in the habit of attributing to malaria, quickly disappear when they use Peruna. This is why Peruna is so popular with them. Peruna provides clean mucous membranes, and the clean mucous membranes do the rest.

Hon. T. Y. Fitzpatrick, Congressman from Kentucky, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"At the solicitation of a friend I used your Peruna and can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with catarrh or who needs a good tonic."—T. Y. Fitzpatrick.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Sole Agents in Pittsburg for the Famous Queen Quality Shoes For Women.

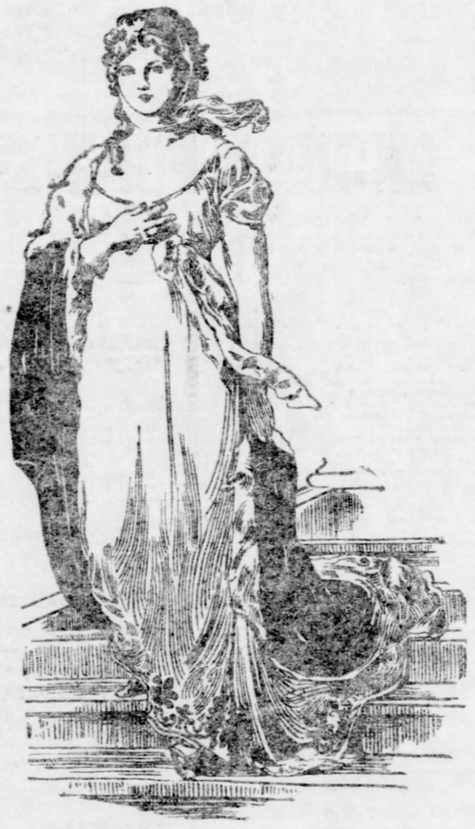
Forty-Three Styles $3 Each.
Three Special Styles, $3.50 Each.



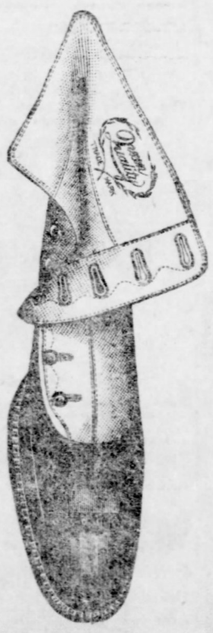
There are no women's shoes in the market today that can compare with Queen Quality, for either price.

The only comparison with the $3 shoes, on the basis of equality, must be made with shoes selling for $4—and even some at that price are inferior. To get anything equal to the special numbers at $3.50, comparison must be made with several widely exploited shoes selling for $5.

When we took up the shoe business we had before us numerous lines of shoes—many of them produced by makers of reputation. Out of the entire collection there was but one shoe that we considered worthy the women who come to this store—and its name was Queen Quality.

There was no mistake made. The shoe has admirably proved its reputation. It has every grace that belongs to the finest shoes made. It is as perfect a fitting shoe as can be fashioned over a last. It is as comfortable a shoe as any woman can put on and wear from the outstart. There is none of that "having to break in." In pedal beauty it is the peer of any shoe made.

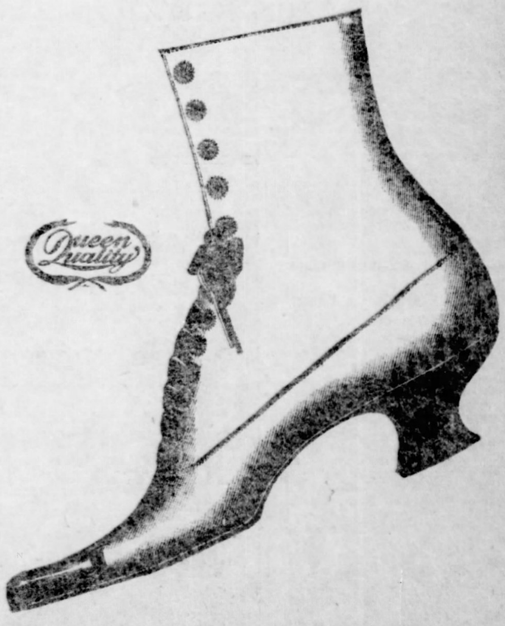
And all this for the very small sum of $3.



The special Queen Quality Shoes that we sell for $3.50 have some extra touches. They are the most remarkable shoe we ever saw for the money. They are full of style. No shoe could be more so. The choicest of leathers enter into their construction. While there are only three styles on the market, these three styles embody all that is admirable in women's shoes.

We are completely ready for your selection of Fall and Winter Shoes of this make.

Any leather preferred, any style desired, will be found, and any of the regular sizes, as well as out sizes, will also be found.



PENN AND FIFTH.

THE ALLEGHENY CAMPAIGN WILL OPEN TONIGHT

Great Demonstration Expected by the North Side Citizens.

FOUR OTHER MEETINGS ARE SCHEDULED

McKeesport Turned Out Great Crowd to Greet Candidates Last Night—Open Air Mass Meeting in West Etna.

With five mass meetings this evening the principles of the Citizens party will be thoroughly spread throughout the county, particularly on the North Side, where the largest meetings will be held. The Allegheny campaign will open with a big meeting at Carnegie Music hall. Dr. S. S. Woodburn, who has charge of the North Side headquarters, anticipates a crowd nearly as large as that which assembled at Old City hall last Saturday night.

The speakers at the Carnegie hall meeting will be Controller John B. Larkin of Pittsburgh, George Shiras, candidate for congress, A. B. Stevenson, W. H. S. Thompson, R. T. McElroy and J. M. Goehring. Music will be furnished by the Eureka Glee club, American Military band and Citizens quartet. The Rev. Dr. H. D. Lindsay will preside.

Open Air Mass-Meeting.

Another North Side meeting will be the open-air demonstration at the West Etna baseball park. This will be the first meeting of the kind during this campaign, and is designed to accommodate the people of Etna and adjoining boroughs and townships. Among the speakers will be W. S. Woods, George Shiras, M. R. Trauerman and Thomas Costello. The Welsh choir of striking miners will sing.

A reception will be tendered to the candidates tonight by the residents of the hill districts, at Grand Army hall, Arlington avenue. The speakers will be J. W. Brown, J. Boyd Duff, L. C. Beatty and David F. Collingwood. The Citizens Glee club will be there.

Meetings will also be held tonight at the Bellefield school, Fourteenth ward, and the Moorhead school, Granville street. At the latter meeting the speakers will be H. K. Porter, George H. Stengel, L. S. Levin and William M. Randolph. The Citizens Glee club will furnish the music.

McKeesport's Big Meeting.

McKeesport was the scene of a monster Citizens party demonstration last night. White's opera house, where the meeting was held, was crowded to the doors with business men and workmen. The outpouring indicates a sentiment overwhelmingly in favor of the Citizens ticket. Among the speakers were City Controller Larkin of Pittsburgh, T. C. Jones, J. Denny O'Neil, the Citizens candidate for recorder, and Thomas M. Brown. All were well received and O'Neil was tendered a great ovation.

Meetings were held last night at Zimmerman hall, Grandview avenue, addressed by James W. Brown, George H. Stengel, J. H. Blair and A. J. Duffy, and at Schiller's hall, Fair Haven, on the Castle Shannon railroad. Both meetings were largely attended.

At a joint meeting of the committees on meetings and speakers of the Citizens party, yesterday afternoon, meetings were scheduled as follows: Wilmerding, October 1; Bayne school house, South Side; Crookson hall, Verona; Franklin school, Eighth ward, Pittsburgh; Hood's hall, Carnot postoffice, and Kenwood Lawn, East End, Pittsburgh, October 2; McKees Rocks, Aspinwall, Hays station and the Grant school, Third ward, Pittsburgh, October 3; Bayne postoffice, on October 4; Natrona, October 7, and Braddock, October 9.

The Democrats of McKeesport will hold a conference tonight for the purpose of inviting ex-Gov. Pattison and his party to speak in McKeesport during his trip.

EXPLODING GAS IN SEWER INJURES TWO

Inspector and Street Commissioner of Edgewood Hurt While Examining Manhole—One May Die.

R. W. Haven, sewer inspector, and E. W. Munford, street commissioner of Edgewood, were severely injured yesterday afternoon by an explosion in a sewer manhole.

M. Munford was in the manhole when the explosion occurred and Mr. Haven was standing directly over it. They say that neither of them had a light and the cause of the explosion is a mystery. At this point the mains of the Philadelphia and the Peoples Gas companies run close together and it has not yet been ascertained whether the explosion was caused by natural gas or sewer gas.

Mr. Haven was badly burned about the face and on the body to the waist. His hair was also burned off. His injuries may prove fatal. Mr. Munford was burned about the hands and face, but his injuries are not serious.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Fourth Avenue Baptist Congregation Reluctantly Consents to Dr. Barnes Departure.

The congregation of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church last night accepted the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Lemuel Call Barnes, to take effect in October. The vote to accept was not unanimous.

The congregation unanimously adopted a minute declaring that, in accepting the resignation, the church desired to express its love, affection and high regard for Dr. Barnes as a man and a minister. Tribute was paid to Dr. Barnes' arduous labors, the peace and harmony in the congregation, the steady growth of the church and the work of evangelization and philanthropy. A motion was passed asking Dr. Barnes to remain here until after the annual meeting of the church in November.

GUARDSMEN LOOK FOR STRIKE ORDERS

EXPECT TO BE CALLED TO ANTHRACITE REGION.

Mobilization of the Second Brigade Could Be Successfully Accomplished in 15 Hours.

The entire national guard of Pennsylvania may be called to the anthracite region. The officers at the scene of the trouble say more troops are needed and should be sent at once. One of the officers on duty in Shenandoah has communicated with a military friend in this city. "My command," he writes, "has been continually on duty since it was sent into the anthracite region. The men are becoming disgusted and think they should be relieved. They have been hooted at and insulted, and it has been very hard to maintain discipline among them. Western troops should be sent to relieve us, and further delay may be fatal, not only to the interests of the operators, but to the miners."

In local national guard circles there is suppressed excitement over the late reports from the anthracite region and Lebanon. While no intimation of expected orders has been sent from Harrisburg it is known that the local troops are hourly expecting them. Should such orders come the mobilization can be completed in a few hours.

Mobilization Would Be Rapid.

All guard property has been overhauled and put into shape for a quick movement. Within a few hours after receiving orders the Fourteenth and Eighteenth regiments and Battery B would be entrained. Arrangements for the mobilization of the Second brigade, at any call, were made shortly after the Homestead strike, and should its services be needed now 15 hours would see the brigade in camp, the men with belts full of ball cartridges.

The local troops were never better prepared for duty. Neither Col. F. I. Rutledge, of the Eighteenth nor Col. W. E. Thompson of the Fourteenth would discuss the matter yesterday further than to say that their commands were at all times ready to answer any call. Both stated that their regiments were in excellent condition and could be entertained in a few hours. They, however, said that they did not think western troops would be needed.

Subordinate officers talked freely "We have been expecting the brigade to be called out for some time," one of them said, "and were warned to keep our companies well in hand. The rifles have been overhauled and made serviceable since camp. I have made my arrangements, as have many of the other officers, to go to the anthracite country at a moment's notice."

Always Prepared for Orders.

A well-known officer of the Eighteenth infantry yesterday was anxiously inquiring where he could get a man to take his position in case his regiment was called out. "I am satisfied," he said, "that there will be orders issued in a short time for a movement of the brigade, and want to be prepared for it. I know nothing of secret orders being issued, but we are always prepared for orders during troubles of this kind."

It may be interesting to know that since the big railroad riots in 1877 a generous supply of ball cartridges is always kept on hand by the local troops. For many years one of the regiments had 40,000 rounds at its command at any hour of the day and night. For years this reserve ammunition was stored in the Allegheny arsenal, and it is now in a place where it can be quickly reached.

JACK MASON MUST PAY.

Court Orders Him to Give Security for Marion Manola's Alimony.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Jack Mason, the actor, was directed by Judge Gildersleeve, in the supreme court today, to give security to his former wife, Marion Manola, who obtained a divorce from him, for the payment to her of $25 a week alimony for the coming six months. The court suggested that Mason should give an order to the manager of the theatrical company with which he has an engagement in Pennsylvania to pay Mrs. Mason her alimony weekly out of his salary.

Mrs. Mason had her divorced husband arrested two weeks ago for non-payment of $475 alimony. He was locked in Ludlow street jail, but was released after giving a $1,000 bonds. Unless he pays the arrears Mrs. Mason will bring proceedings to have his bond forfeited.

DR. EDWARD KOCH

The Famous Throat and Lung Specialist, of New York City, Is in Pittsburgh.

Dr. Edward Koch, the great master in the diagnosis and treatment of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh and Hay Fever and the inventor of the wonderful Koch Inhalation, can be seen at the Pittsburgh Koch Lung Cure Institute, 401, 403, 405 Penn avenue, corner Fourth street. All those who are suffering from chronic ailments of the respiratory organs or diseases of the lungs, throat or nose, can meet this famed physician, and after a free examination will be given his valuable opinion on their case.

Even the most advanced cases of Consumption and chronic Asthma need not despair. The direct application of the healing vaporized lymph discovered by Prof. Robt. Koch, of Berlin, is an energetic and active foe of the tuberculosis bacilli and will effect a cure where every other resource has failed. The introduction of the heavy medicated vapors as given under the Koch treatment introduces the remedy directly into the seat of the diseased parts and to all the remote recesses of the lungs.

Doctor Edward Koch, who is now visiting his institute in this city, discovered, perfected and successfully applies this remarkable treatment; it is the only natural, scientific and absolutely reliable treatment ever applied for the cure of bronchial and consumptive diseases. If it fails, then mortal, incurable injury to the lung structures has taken place before it is applied. Thousands of patients have been cured, and thousands more are now taking this enlightened treatment at the Koch Lung Cure Institutes in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Rochester, Buffalo, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh.

The healing oily vapors ladened with the Koch germ-killing tuberculine work remarkable changes and rapidly advance the patient toward renewed vigor, strength and a permanent cure. Dr. Edward Koch will cheerfully examine and give one trial treatment free to all who apply at the Institute, 401, 403, 405 Penn avenue, corner Fourth street, between the hours of 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Illustrated pamphlet sent free to city or out of town residents on application by mail.

Vigilance Committee Needed—William Weicle, a farmer, living near Ross grove, was held up and robbed of $50 in money and a check for $25, while on his way to Sharpsburg Tuesday night. Owing to the many recent robberies near Ross Grove there is talk of forming a vigilance committee.

Dropped Dead Carrying Tub—Frederick Woolf, aged 64, a plumber living in Hemlock street, Allegheny, dropped dead yesterday while at work at No. 1209 Colwell street. Woolf was assisting in carrying a heavy bathtub. Apoplexy is supposed to have been the cause of the man's sudden demise.

Mifflin Without a Justice—Mifflin township is without a justice of the peace and the indications are that there will be none for some time, as no person seems to want the office. One of the justices resigned a year ago. Yesterday Frank Taylor, the remaining justice, resigned. The cause of the resignation is said to be the lack of business.

Thief Left Gold Behind—While Edward Carey's family were sitting on the front porch of their home in Twelfth avenue, Homestead, Tuesday night, a thief stole $120 in paper money from a box under Mr. Carey's bed. Gold coin to the amount of $80, concealed in the box, the thief scattered over the bedroom floor, evidently thinking it was silver change.

Reunion of Old Fighters—A reunion of the survivors of the Sixty-second Pennsylvania volunteer infantry will be held tonight in the rooms of Col. J. C. Hult post, G. A. R., at No. 1349 Fifth avenue. Of the 1070 names enrolled in that regiment, only about 100 are living and most of those are expected to be present. There will be a banquet and speeches.

Next Meeting of Councils—It is expected that both branches of councils will hold meetings next Monday, the regular date, and that both branches will be able to muster quorums. A great deal depends on whether the proposed railroad ordinances are ready to present. If not, some agreement will be made to present neither, or there will not be a quorum in either branch.

Burglars Took Wagon Load—Burglars entered the tobacco and confectionery store of W. J. GOES TO GERMANY.

Particular Travelers Demand the Importation of American Articles.

"I had drank coffee since babyhood, and although I was very nervous and dyspeptic, I could not and would not believe that coffee had anything to do with it," writes an American lady now living in Munich, Germany.

"My physician finally convinced me that coffee was at the bottom of all my troubles, and I tried many things to take its place, but nothing satisfied the craving for real coffee. At last, one day in a half-hearted, despairing mood, I bought from the grocer some Postum Food Coffee. My grown-up daughter, who, by the way, had inherited my taste for coffee and also my nervousness, laughed and said: 'Don't you know that nothing can take the place of well-made coffee, half Java and half Mocha, with plenty of rich cream?'

"'I firmly believe it,' I replied, 'but a drowning man will grasp at a straw, and I am getting more nervous every day, and can hardly eat anything at all, and Dr. S., like the rest of the physicians, tells me it all comes from coffee.'

"So next morning I personally made a pot of Postum, following closely the directions—and such a surprise! The color was a rich, dark, winey brown, and a pleasant aroma greeted the nostrils. But the taste—the crucial test! I confess I feared to put it to that test for fear of another disappointment.

"But not so with my daughter, who eagerly made the trial and fairly shouted: 'Hurrah! Mamma, you have found it at last.' I tried it and that ended our coffee drinking for good. The flavor was full and rich and left nothing to be desired.

"In a short time my dyspepsia disappeared, and as for nerves—my daughter and myself almost forgot that such things existed, until we came to Germany and I had to go back to coffee and we are again as nervous and dyspeptic as we used to be. But we don't intend to let it go on: I have written to America for a good supply of Postum and propose to always have it in the future at any cost. Life is miserable to us without Postum.

"When we used it, Postum proved the most gentle of conquerors and loaded us with benefits in the way of strengthened health and quiet nerves." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Order Above All Things.

Conditions in the anthracite mining region are turning for the worse very rapidly. Calls for troops are coming from every county not already supplied with them, and the attitude of the strikers toward the soldiers grows daily more hostile. An open rupture is recognized now as an imminent possibility. The rioting at Lebanon, resultant upon the employment of non-union men in the wire mills, has added to the turmoil and has apparently further excited the miners.

Of course, there is no doubt about what the result will be if there is a clash between the strikers and the military. That will be the end of the strike. There is a large irresponsible element in the mining region, but the strike has been maintained by the better element. This latter will surrender the moment there is a battle. It will not tolerate such measures. The irresponsibles, on the other hand, though ready to make trouble, are incapable of any sustained effort. They will scatter. Their one hope of avoiding arrest and punishment will be to get to work in the mines, and they will be the first to scurry in.

As a matter of fact, the situation is such that further discussion of the justice or injustice of the strike is idle. It is now wholly a question of keeping the peace. That is paramount. Though it may require all the power of the state, disorder must be sternly repressed.

American Is Best.

Importations of iron and steel will not be much of a factor in Pittsburgh operations in the future. That recently received here is too high in phosphorus and silicon to work well. It is inferior product and local mills will depend upon home furnaces even at higher prices. The principal trouble has been the inability of American furnaces to keep up with demand, the shortage of coke shipments being at the bottom of it. Even so, waiting is better than working the foreign material. Thus another question is settled favorable to the lasting supremacy won by American furnace practice.

Protection a Fixed Policy.

In discussing the tariff as a business proposition in his Logansport speech, President Roosevelt did not go too far when he announced his belief that this country is irrevocably committed to the protective policy and that the nation as a whole has generally acquiesced in this policy. This is a reasonable deduction from the results of many national elections, in which voters have signified their preference for protective prosperity as opposed to the hard times of free trade. Adherence to the protective policy should not, however, lead to fossilization of the tariff schedules. As protection to American industries has wrought great prosperity for the United States, it would be foolish to abandon it for free trade theories, because the partial application of such theories has always brought paralysis on the industries of the country. This fact makes it imperative that alterations in the schedules should be made with care and with the fixed determination not to permit foreign industries to obtain an advantage over American industries.

President Roosevelt believes that some machinery can be devised which will enable us to correct irregularities and remove incongruities without razing the whole structure, and he expressed a personal preference for the organization of a body of experts, of high character and ability, who should make investigations into changing industrial needs and the probable results of any suggested tariff revision. This body should leave partisanship entirely out of the question and deal with the subject from the standpoint of our business and industrial needs.

This idea of a tariff commission falls into line with some suggestion recently made by S. D. N. North, chief statistician for manufactures of the twelfth census. Mr. North advised the establishment of a board of experts, the value of whose work should depend upon their ability and the fixity of their tenure, and whose duty it should be to collate and digest all facts regarding the tariff and to submit the results, with conclusions and recommendations, to congress. The national legislature cannot delegate its power to levy taxes, but it can provide whatever machinery may be necessary to enable it to levy taxes intelligently, and this can be done so as to interfere in no way with the prerogatives of the legislative or the executive branch of the government. Such a commission, Mr. North suggests, should be a part of the treasury department and work in harmony with the secretary of the treasury, in order that it may carry out the fiscal policy which the treasury chief is appointed to represent.

Whatever steps congress may take, however, to provide machinery for putting the tariff on a scientific basis, and thereby endeavor to obtain the best results for the nation as a whole, there must be no sacrifice of the protection principle. As President Roosevelt pertinently pointed out, "the one consideration which must never be omitted in a tariff change, is the imperative need of preserving the American standard of living for the American workingman."

New York and Roosevelt.

On the subject of trusts and combinations the actual language of the platform of the state of New York is not so explicit as is President Roosevelt in recommendation of remedial measures. But what it may lack in explicitness of language is fully atoned for in its indorsement of the president—past, present and future. It accepts him and all his words and works with cordiality and heartiness, and thereby commits the Republicans of the Empire state to support of the presidential policy of amending the Constitution to give congress the power and authority to regulate, by legislation, corporations and combinations engaged in inter-state commerce.

The convention of Republicans of the president's own state leaves nothing to be desired in its condemnation of "all combinations and monopolies in whatever form having for their purpose the destruction of competition in legitimate enterprise, the limitation of production in any field of labor, or the increase of cost to the consumer of the necessaries of life," and it pledges "the party to the support of such legislation as will suppress and prevent the organization of such illegal combinations." The president proposes a constitutional amendment as the first step of "such legislation as will suppress and prevent." While the New York plank does not set forth this idea in specific terms, its broad, general language embraces it. This necessarily implied acceptance of the president's policy is further emphasized in the platform declaration of "heartiest approval and most cordial support" for "President Roosevelt and his administration," and in the recognition of "the fidelity with which he has carried out the policies of his lamented predecessor and the rare capacity shown in meeting the new responsibilities of his great office." If anything more be desired it is found in the supreme acceptance involved in this declaration:

> We look forward with confidence to his (Roosevelt's) election to the presidency in 1904, and so far as this convention has the power, we pledge thereto the earnest efforts of the Republican party of this state.

On protection the platform is sound and aggressive. "The integrity of the protective principle," it declares, "must be preserved." So say we all, from the Pacific slope to Iowa, and from Iowa to Maine.

Palma Makes Another Protest.

President Palma of Cuba cannot be accused of timidity, for of late his dealings with the United States government have been marked by vigorous protests against anything he considers an infringement on the rights of the little republic. As president of that country it is his duty to be firm in upholding its interests, but he seemingly overlooks the fact that the United States also has rights to maintain.

Recently President Palma urged the withdrawal of all the American troops left on the island as a measure of precaution when the management of affairs was turned over to the Cubans. The United States had dealt so fairly and generously with the Cubans that they should have realized there would be a complete withdrawal of the military when this government was convinced that the proper time for such action had arrived. This matter is still in abeyance, the request for withdrawal having been referred to Secretary of War Root for consideration.

Now President Palma comes to the front with a protest against the removal of the military records from Havana to Washington. He wants them kept in Cuba for at least a year, declaring that they are absolutely necessary for the proper conducting of his government's business and that there should be easy acess to them. As these are the records of the American military operations in Cuba it is apparent that they are the property of the United States and that their proper place is at Washington. Had Palma requested copies of these records, to be made at the expense of Cuba, he would have displayed a sense of propriety and gratitude, but instead of doing so he has bluntly protested against the removal of this government's property. Even at Washington the Cuban minister can have easy access to these records, so President Palma's principal reason for his protest is weak. He also ignores the fact that the United States government needs these records in its business.

Policing of the Balkans.

The report by cable that Germany and Russia may inform the United States in a polite way that conditions in Roumania are the affair of the powers signatory to the treaty of Berlin; in other words, none of the business of the United States, does not ring true. We do not expect the signatory powers responsible for Roumania to seriously grapple with the internal affairs of the Balkan kingdom, and neither do we expect them to intimate to the United States that it is concerning itself with matters that are none of its business. The United States has observed the diplomatic proprieties in calling to the attention of the powers the persecutions of the Jews in the Balkan states. It may be assumed that they have been unaware of the conditions that exist, and they ought to thank the United States, which has been made aware of them, for calling attention to the dereliction of their ward. The United States has no desire to interfere in matters that do not concern it, but the failure, through ignorance or otherwise, of the Berlin treaty powers to enforce decent observance by Roumania of obligations imposed in constituting it an independent kingdom is made of importance here by the arrival of the persecuted Hebrews in our ports. Europe is responsible for all the Balkan states, independent or tributary, and this circumstance complicates our dealings with Turkey over the kidnaping of Miss Stone by brigands for a ransom. The Roumanian note is a first reminder to Europe of its responsibility in these regions, and may lead up to something even more important. It at least brings home to the powers the consciousness that their work of policing the territories wrested from Turkish rule and left to their own devices is not merely badly done, but is not done at all.

In Hevzegovina, which was turned over to Austria for administrative purposes, things were different from the first. The work there was well done. In the other territories it was made everybody's business, and consequently is nobody's business. It will be a good thing if the reminder of the United States spurs them to do something, but we fear a stronger spur than the one used will be needed to produce any such result.

Comments in the German press have been wholly favorable to taking cognizance of the American note and acting upon the suggestion. Only one St. Petersburg paper has said anything. That one is the Zeitung, and it declares plainly the powers must perform the duty imposed by the Berlin treaty. There is no indication here that either Russia or Germany is disposed to make an impertinent answer to a polite note, though they may take no action upon the request made.

Americans to the Rescue.

America is always in the front, and Pittsburgh does its full share to keep it there. This remark is called forth by the contribution of Mr. Henry Phipps for the relief of the Boers in South Africa. The appeal issued by Gens. DeWet, Botha and Delarey for funds for the rehabilitation of the unfortunate Boer states was rendered necessary because Great Britain could not see its way to meet all of the requirements. Mr. White and Mr. Phipps have made it certain the response from America will be very generous.

It is a good cause. Naturally the Boer country is devastated by the years of warfare and the people need help to resume their peaceful avocations. The final resort of Gen. Kitchener was to destroy the farms. There are few buildings remaining. There are no implements. It is genuine philanthropy to assist the Boers to help themselves.

Whiskerless Footballists.

The football season being close at hand there is reawakened interest in all the doings of the heroes of the gridiron, and the first important item of news is the announcement that the members of the Northwestern university team have been compelled to sacrifice their whiskers. The only plausible explanation of this proceeding is that whiskers furnish a convenient grabbing place for an opposing tackle. If the whiskers are of any considerable length they doubtless could be made points of successful attack, but by the same reasoning there should be a shaving of the heads, for the long hair affected by football players is certainly as dangerous to the wearer as whiskers, when in the clutch of an opponent. A more reasonable explanation seems to be that the footballists want to keep up friendly relations with the barbers, and therefore are having their faces shaved, while keeping their hair free from the shears of the tonsorial artists.

The weather man's efforts to pull off his predictions on time are doubtless responsible for the stew into which he put the rest of us yesterday.

TOWN WITHOUT PREACHERS.

Four Pulpits at Jamestown, Pa., Have Been Vacated.

SHARON, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Jamestown, Mercer county, is without a minister, yet the town has four churches. The Rev. R. A. Buzza was recently transferred to Chicora by the Methodist Episcopal conference, and he delivered his farewell sermon last Sunday; the Rev. J. L. Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian church, left recently to accept a chaplaincy in the regular army; the Rev. Mr. Haddock of the Baptist church preached his farewell sermon and left Monday to take another charge, and the Rev. M. E. Jamieson has left the place on account of injuries received when the church was partly wrecked by a cyclone last Easter.

THE CITY SALOON A CLERICAL DREAM

Bishop Potter Would Have the Municipality Run the Liquor Traffic.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.

Bishop Potter is enthusiastic over his suggestion that the city of New York should run liquor saloons. This does not mean that the municipality is asked to encourage the use of whisky and beer, but that it should remove traffic in those liquids from the hands of men that abuse their rights. It was at the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York that Bishop Potter today made his suggestion. He had been making an address on temperance and referred to the "great public house movement in England." In brief, it was thus explained by the bishop: "If you want gin, rum, whisky or any intoxicant, you must go to a place where these are sold by corporate authority and utterly without profit to the individual who sells them. If this individual can sell you, instead, tea, milk, coffee or some other harmless beverage (if there is any harmless beverage), he will share the profits of the sale, and at the end of the year the village, town or city will share it still more largely. This looks well on its face, but conditions in New York are such that there seems little chance of the plan ever being brought into being here. To begin with, most of the saloons are owned by Tammany men, and they are not disposed to give up anything that yields large profits. Then the city government has more on its hands than it can attend to, as it is, without going into the saloon business. On the other hand, the temperance movement is active in New York city, and any word from Bishop Potter carries tremendous weight. It will be interesting to see how the proposition is received by other public-spirited men. The address of today has aroused a gerat deal of interest and is warmly discussed in saloons as well as among temperance workers.

Platt Beaten, But Not Conquered.

What New York wants to know is whether the "easy boss" really has been deposed by Gov. Odell from the leadership of the Republican party in this state. The general opinion is that he has not. T. C. Platt had so many hard raps at different times that he has acquired a recuperative capacity which always stands him in good stead. The chances are that when he gets back to "Amen Corner," as he will by tomorrow, he will gather his henchmen about him and be as much ruler as ever he was. Senator Platt long ago learned the art of taking defeat gracefully.

Parcel Stamp for Commuters.

The Philadelphia system of "parcel stamps" has been adopted by the Erie railroad. The railroad company will sell to commuters 5-cent stamps in lots of 20, each stamp giving to the purchaser the right to have parcels carried by the railroad and deposited at his station until called for. This is to give commuters the opportunity of buying what they want from New York stores without the trouble of carrying home the purchases. Philadelphia stores have had such a system for years, having an arrangement with the railroads; but this will be the first time it has been used in New York. Whether it is worth while, is a question, for most of the big department stores deliver goods free for many miles around New York.

Charges Against Chief Croker.

At last the charges against Chief Croker of the New York fire department have been made public. They include nearly everything that could be preferred against a chief, except financial dishonesty. He is charged with mismanaging his business, with falsifying reports, with accepting passes on railroads and steamships in violation of the state constitution, with conduct prejudicial to the good order of the department in persecuting certain members, and with conduct unbecoming a gentleman. The specific offenss are several, the most important being that, through negligence and incompetence, he caused 20 lives to be lost in the Park Avenue hotel, and in another fire allowed buildings worth more than $1,000,000 to be consumed when they could have been saved had he exhibited sound judgment. All these charges Chief Croker will be called on to face next week, beginning Monday. But with it all the average New Yorker regards him as one of the most efficient fire chiefs the city ever had.

How Mrs. Roosevelt Travels.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt is thoroughly democratic, as well as self-reliant. She showed that again today when she passed through New York on her way to Washington to meet the president. She came up from Oyster Bay to Long Island City, walked aboard a ferryboat and sat in the ladies' cabin with hundreds of other passengers, few of whom recognized her, and on reaching this side of the East river entered a public automobile with her maid. The machine sped across town to the West Twenty-third street ferry house and another ferry ride took Mrs. Roosevelt to the Pennsylvania railroad depot in Jersey City, where she caught a train for Washington. She looked a little worried, presumably on account of the president's indisposition, but did not put on anything like as many "scallops" as the negro attendant on the boat, who usually glares at passengers as if she owned the craft and has a good big slice of the Pennsylvania railroad into the bargain.

The Flower Show.

New Yorkers are always to be attracted by flowers, whether they are exotics or merely the common garden varieties. The main thing for the resident of this city is that they are real plants. On that account the attendance at the annual fair of the American institute, where there is a handsome horticultural exhibition, has been something enormous since it opened yesterday. It is at the hall of the institute, in West Forty-fourth street, near Fifth avenue, and the collection is of rare beauty and extent. Western New York sends the finest apples and pears; Long island the best and largest vegetables, and New Jersey the most magnificent display of flowers.

High Heels on Men's Shoes.

Young men who like to have the latest wrinkle in dress are strutting about Broadway and Fifth avenue on abnormally high heels. They are not higher in proportion than those worn by my lady of fashion; but they look peculiar under the extensive shoe of the average healthy American youth. These extra high heels were made only on expensive shoes, but the cheaper shoemakers have taken up the fad, and now the average shoe dealer asks his masculine customer whether he wants high or low heels. The high-heeled shoe gives the wearer something of the appearance of a cowboy or vaquero, and the swagger with which he must perforce move about on his heels carries out the resemblance. It is not believed the style will survive the first slippery day, when icy sidewalks will challenge the wearer of such heels to walk safely along if he can.

Eloped on Chinese Loot.

Some of the marines who served in China at the time of the Boxer troubles managed to become rich in the course of the campaign. This is generally known, but occasionally a reminder of it is brought to the surface in a sensational way. A private in this branch of the service has just disappeared from the New York barracks, and it is believed that he has eloped with his sweetheart, who lived in Brooklyn. This particular marine was seen with nearly $1,000 in his possession just before he vanished a few days ago, showing that he must have been thrifty to save so much money out of his $13 a month, unless he had some other source of revenue. His comrades say that a favorite amusement of his was to show them $500 or $600 in bills of large denomination, in the intervals of polishing up door knobs in the officers' quarters, while costly diamond rings ornamented his fingers. There was some fine loot for active sailors and soldiers at Peking, according to all accounts.

Discovery Day to Be Celebrated.

The discovery of America by Christopher Columbus took place at 2 o'clock in the morning of October 12, 1492. This is a matter of history and is not given here as fresh news. It is brought to mind at this time by the determination of the Knights of Columbus of Manhattan, Staten Island and the Bronx, to celebrate "Discovry Day" on that date in Carnegie hall with much eclat. Besides commemorating the great achievement of Columbus, the occasion will be a reception to Archbishop Farley, successor of the late Archbishop Corrigan.

Many Dirty Theaters in New York.

Now that the theater season has fairly opened, President Lederle of the board of health has taken up the work of inspecting playhouses with a vigor that has brought results in the way of interesting information. Of 55 theaters in this city he finds that 23 are in good condition. That is, all the requirements of the health code are met. Of the other houses so much good cannot be said. Fifteen of them lack ventilation in toilets; four, ventilation in dressing rooms; 20 have defective plumbing, and 11 are declared to be generally unclean. As these theaters are situated in all parts of the city, it is fair to assume that the 23 theaters which have a clean bill of health are in the Broadway district, and that the dirty houses are in the Bowery or other quarters where hygiene is not strictly regarded, as a rule. Managers of prominent theaters are very particular about the sanitary condition of their houses, as a matter of business. The dirt in theaters of the higher class is usually in the plays presented, and that is beyond the jurisdiction of the board of health.

Gen. Booth Coming.

In different parts of New York there are pictures of a handsome old man with flowing white beard and benevolent aspect. The old man is Gen. William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, who is expected to arrive in New York by October 4. He is coming over to inspect the army in America and to hold conferences with some of his officers in this country. He will spend four months in the United States and one in Canada. He intends to deliver addresses in 25 American cities, including Pittsburgh, and will also speak in nine Canadian centers.

Disbrow to Be Tried for Murder.

Louis Disbrow's counsel fought hard to save him from standing trial for the murder of "Dimple" Lawrence and Clarence Foster at Good Ground; but the grand jury this afternoon found an indictment against him, and another sensational homicide trial is on the cards.

Valuable Restaurant Stands.

The business value of a restaurant in the "great white light district" is well recognized. What the Pabst Company thinks of it was shown today when an action was issued in its behalf asking $300,000 from Charles Thorley for ejecting it from its premises in Broadway at Longacre square. Therley owned the property and the Pabst Company was conducting the Pabst hotel there. It is one of the most striking buildings in that part of the city, for it faces Broadway downtown, and the electric sign was the most prominent object to everybody coming toward it from a mile or two.

Preparing for a Great Store Opening.

At one of the new stores in Herald square, which is to open on Monday, according to announcement, there is a strange conglomeration of work people. Painters, carpenters, gasfitters, electricians and decorators are mixed up with young women setting forth boxes of drygoods, spruce young men handling neckties, collars and similar articles, and solid-looking men unpacking great cases of ready-made clothing. All are working together, and shavings and shirts, pains and pants, laces and incandescent lamps, all are mixed together. It will be hard work to get ready for an opening worthy of Broadway, and hundreds of persons of both sexes are working night and day. Herald square has never been busier in the still watches of the night than it is just now, notwithstanding that there has been much activity there for nearly two years, dating from the moment that the first pickax descended upon the old ramshackle buildings which have been demolished to make room for the two immense department stores which occupy the west side of the square from Thirty-third to Thirty-fifth streets. When both stores are opened the old aspect of the locality will be changed so thoroughly that an old New Yorker coming here after after a few years of absence would have to ask somebody to give him his bearings.

Marine Hospital Man and Treasury Agent to Look Over Ground.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—Surgeon General Wyman of the Marine hospital corps today returned to the supervising architect all letters and papers relative to offers of property for a site for the new marine hospital at Pittsburgh, which were sent to him for examination.

It has been decided to detail a member of the Marine hospital corps in this city to go to Pittsburgh to look over the various sites offered. There will also be a special agent sent from the treasury, as usual in the selection of a site for a public building.

GOOD TALES FROM OUR EXCHANGES

One Way to Keep the Colored Citizen from Voting Down South.

An Alabamian tells this story of his negro coachman, who invariably voted, says the New York Tribune. On one particular election day he returned home in the afternoon with a countenance that looked like it had been taking some familiarities with a buzz saw. "What's the matter, Zack?" I asked with some solicitude. "It's this way, boss; I went up there to the votin' place, and there wuz the county undertakah, sah, a-sittin' with a big book open 'foah him, and he sez to me right sharp like: 'What's your name?' 'Zack Taylor,' I sez, humble. 'Let's see?' says the undertakah, and he turned over the leaves of the book. All of a sudden he stopped turnin' and begin to run his finger down the page mutterin' to himself, 'Taylor, Taylor, Taylor, Taylor—Zack.' And putty soon he hollered out, 'Heah it iz. You black scoundrel. I dun buried you 10 years ago. What do you mean by tryin' to vote?' Just then a passel of white men tuk and threw me out, and den I dun come home 'fore dey could bury me again."

GOOD WORKING MAJORITY.

A well-known surgeon, according to the Melbourne Punch, was imparting some clinical instruction to half a dozen students who accompanied him in his rounds. Pausing at the bedside of a doubtful case, he said: "Now, gentlemen, do you think this is or is not a case for operation?" One by one the students made their diagnosis, and all of them answered in the negative. "Well, gentlemen, you are all wrong," said the wielder of the free and flashing scalpel, "and I shall operate tomorrow." "No, you won't," exclaimed the patient, as he rose in his bed. "Six to one is a good majority; gimme my clothes!"

EUPHONIOUS DESCRIPTION.

'Midway on Cape Cod, between Barnstable village and Centreville, on the ocean side, is an eminence called 'Shootflying Hill,' that commands a view of the entire cape as it stretches its slender length forward," says the Boston Transcript. "It was named thus by gunners, and its top is crowned by an observatory open to the public. From this height a beautiful panorama of scenery is spread out on all sides. Directly in front lies a lovely sheet of water, Lake Wequaquet, picturesquely intersected with promontories and inlets, and the strip of land that separates it from the ocean appears very narrow from its elevation. Bay and ocean converge at the distant horizon, and the eye follows the green, gently rolling land as it slopes toward the narrowing tip of the cape. It is a most wonderful view, and one that can be studied for hours. All sorts of people visit the observatory, and one hears all kinds of comments on the prospect, but it would be difficult to match that of a very mannishly attired young lady's remark to her mother, whose conception of the beauty of the place was summed up in the remark: 'You ought to have seen that view, mother; it was really quite a "corker."'"

DREW LOTS FOR CONGRESS.

"There is a man coming to congress from our state that I fell sorry for," said H. P. Hurley of Texas.

"He is a lawyer of the name of Gillespie, a very fine man, and he will no doubt make a creditable representative.

"But I wouldn't be in Gillespie's shoes for a much better job than that of a congressman, and all on account of the way he got his nomination. The convention which finally chose him was about two months in completing its work. It met in three different places and balloted for the three candidates, Gillespie, Riddle, and Poindexter, over 5,000 times with no result.

"Finally Poindexter dropped out and Gillespie and Riddle gambled for the nomination. Two tickets were put in a hat and the competitors drew to see which would get the prize, Gillespie proving the lucky man. It is the first congressional nomination I ever knew disposed of in such a way."

DIFFERING OPINIONS ON USING PARK SITE

Director McCandless Thinks Carnegie Technical Schools Ought Not to be in Schenley Park.

Director J. Guy McCandless of the department of public works does not believe that the Carnegie technical schools ought to be placed in Schenley park. The director believes the proper thing to do would be to submit the question of the issue of bonds for the purchase of a site to the people. Former Director E. M. Bigelow believes there is nothing in the Schenley park deeds to prevent using a part of it as a site for the school.

"I do not think it would be a wise idea to locate the technical schools in the park," said Director McCandless. "I am not opposed to them, and I think it would be a grand thing for Pittsburgh to get them—the offer of Mr. Carnegie should be accepted by all means. But I also think the matter ought to be submitted to the people and let them say whether they want a site bought for the school. The city ought to furnish Mr. Carnegie with all the land necessary to meet his ideas. It would be to the everlasting disgrace of Pittsburgh if it is not done, but I do not think that any part of the park ought to be taken. The park is not too large now. This city is constantly growing and more room will be needed for parks in the future."

"Mrs. Schenley gave 300 acres to the city for use as a park, and for no other purpose, as the deed plainly states. She sold 100 acres, at a low figure, to be a part of the park, and for the enlargement of the park, and the deed plainly states that. It seems to me that it would be an exceedingly delicate matter to ask Mrs. Schenley to permit the use of a part of the park for something else, no matter how worthy. Furthermore, I do not believe Mrs. Schenley will permit it. She gave the land as a breathing place for the people."

Former Director Bigelow was at city hall yesterday, looking over the deeds by which the city secured the park. He closely scrutinized the deed for the 19 acres on which stands the Carnegie institute, the deed for the 300 acres which Mrs. Schenley donated to the city, and the deed for the 100 acres which she sold to the city. He said, after carefully investigating them, that there was nothing in the deeds to prevent the use of a part of the land for this school. Mr. Bigelow is very much in favor of using the park site.

The councilmanic committee on site will hold a meeting this afternoon and will then receive the report of the committee which called on City Solicitor Thomas D. Carnahan. Some action will then be taken looking toward making an arrangement with Mrs. Schenley, if possible.

CURED ILLS BY LONG FAST.

An Erie Attorney Abstained from Eating for Thirty-Seven Days.

ERIE, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—A fast of 37 days has cured all the ills of Attorney P. Slocum. The treatment was taken in the hope of finding relief from catarrh of the stomach and kidney complaint. Both have disappeared. Mr. Slocum asserts he was reduced to 90 pounds by the water diet, but is now regaining his normal weight.

"I have been regenerated," he declares. "I haven't an ill or an ache. One remarkable circumstance is that my eyes, which have troubled me greatly, are entirely cured. I do my work without glasses." Attorney Slocum is chairman of the Republican city committee.

PERSONALS.

A. C. Purcell, chief engineer of the fire department of Dublin, Ireland, was yesterday the guest of Miles S. Humphreys, chief engineer of the Pittsburgh bureau of fire. Chief Purcell came over to attend the convention of fire chiefs recently held in New York. He said the fire fighting apparatus of America is ahead of that used in Europe, but that Europe is ahead of America in the method of handling men. In Dublin, he said, the families of firemen live at the engine houses, and only nine men are necessary to man a company. Last night he left for Buffalo.

"I think Gen. Charles Dick will be our next governor," remarked Col. W. E. Bundy of the First regiment of the Ohio National Guard at the Hotel Henry last night. "He is one of the brightest young men in Ohio and has represented the state in congress with much honor." Col. Bundy is United States district attorney of Ohio and a nephew of Senator J. B. Foraker.

F. D. Cassanave, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, passed through Pittsburgh to Baltimore last night after spending his vacation in California.

W. M. Marsh, whose name is a household word among stogie smokers, was in the city last night. He is the son of the original Marsh who introduced the Wheeling stogie, 60 years ago. In speaking of the extent of the stogie trade, he said: "Our stogies can now be bought in all parts of Australia, and I heard that when Ladysmith was short of supplies during the Boer war our stogies were the only ones that could be purchased in the stores there. Our receipts last year were over $3,000,000. The business was started by my father about 1848, and I think the industry has done much for the Nail City."

Col. J. L. Spangler of Bellefonte, a former member of the staff of Gov. Daniel H. Hastings, passed through the city to his home last night.

The Hon. James A. Wilson, secretary of agriculture, went to Washington last night. He was in the west with President Roosevelt and when the trip of the president was abandoned he decided to return. "The illness of the president will be of short duration," he remarked, "and there is no occasion for alarm. The president is in the best of health and a little thing like this does not affect him."

Frank G. Harris of Clearfield, treasurer of Pennsylvania, passed through the city to his home last night.

George E. Kepple of La Porte, Tex., who has been visiting his old friends in Pittsburgh for about a week, received word yesterday that he had been nominated for the Texas legislature on the Republican ticket. His district is reliably Republican.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Jonathan Phillips.

Jonathan Phillips died at his home and birthplace, in Robinson township, yesterday morning. He was born 83 years ago, being the son of Samuel Phillips, who settled in Robinson township more than a century ago. Samuel Phillips was, as far as known, the first settler of what is now Robinson township. Deceased was one of nine children of whom four are still alive: John of Robinson township, and three sisters, Mrs. Speer of Indianola, Ia.; Mrs. Elizabeth Scott of McDonald, and Mrs. Mary Ann McCurdy of Galey, Pa.

Jonathan Phillips was married early in life to Miss Glass of Robinson township, and to this union seven children were born, five of whom survive. Mrs. Phillips died 19 years ago. Up until the time of his death, deceased was very active and healthy, doing much work on his farm, which was one of the finest in Robinson township. For some years Mr. Phillips was a school director in Robinson township and for 25 years was a road supervisor. He was a leading member of the old Union United Presbyterian church, being an elder in that congregation at the time of his death. Mr. Phillips' death was caused an attack of Bright's disease.

The children surviving him are Sampel Phillips and Newton S. Phillips, both of Robinson township; William J. Phillips, a real estate man of this city; Calvin K. Phillips of Corapolis, and Everett N. Phillips a Corapolis undertaker. Funeral services will be held a the old homestead tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Less than a year ago the Phillips family held a big reunion on the farm of Jonathan Phillips, in Robinson township.

Daniel Smitley.

Daniel Smitley of Bessemer terrace, East Pittsburgh, died late Tuesday night from injuries sustained by falling from the roof of a new building on which he had been working, near his home, Monday evening. He was 66 years old and is survived by his widow and seven children: Jacob, Clark, Charles Smitley and Mrs. John Q. Eicher of Braddock; Mrs. Floyd Hays of Westmoreland county, and Mrs. John Stout and Miss Martha of Fayette county. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

W. H. H. Algeo.

W. H. H. Algeo, 62 years old, a real estate broker, died yesterday morning at the Presbyterian hospital, Allegheny, of stomach trouble, from which he had suffered for over a year. Mr. Algeo was a widower and made his home with his brother, John Algeo, at No. 1205 Federal street, Allegheny. He was a native of the Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, but for 30 years lived on the North Side. His real estate office was at Federal street and North avenue. He is survived by two brothers and a sister.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. Katherine Graf, 72 years old, is dead at her home, No. 922 Chartiers street, Allegheny. She was a native of Germany and is survived by four sons and two daughters.

TRIBUTE TO DR. REID.

The Rev. S. Edward Young Praised Him—Son of Arabian Sheik Saw Father's Picture.

An incident at the Second Presbyterian church last evening was the presence of Hanne Audi, son of the famous Sheik Audi of Ramala, Palestine, who illustrated the text "We have piped unto you and ye have not danced," by playing on a reed flute brought from the khan of the Good Samaritan on Pastor Young's recent visit to the Holy Land.

During that journey Sheik Joseph Audi accompanied the party throughout Palestine, and his picture, taken by Mrs. Young, was placed on the screen, to the surprise of his son, who is passing through Pittsburgh in the interest of his father's business.

BEATING DOES NOT JUSTIFY A MAN IN KILLING

Court Defines Self-Defense in the Trial of John Broderick.

SHOT WILLIAM LARKIN IN A SALOON.

Witnesses Agreed the Defendant Was Set Upon by Larkin and McGarvey during a Political Brawl.

John Broderick was tried yesterday before Judge Stowe for the murder of William Larkin at the Alexander hotel, Penn avenue and Twenty-sixth street, June 27.

The shooting occurred during a political fight in the saloon. Broderick alleged that he shot in self-defense. He is 26 years old and presented a neat appearance. He was a night clerk in an undertaking establishment before the killing occurred.

Two factions met in the saloon. One was made up of John Broderick, his brother Morris, and several friends, and the other, William Larkin, his brother James, and several others.

The evidence showed that a preliminary fight was stopped by two policemen, but the quarrel was renewed. John Broderick took no part in the fighting, but when James Larkin and James McGarvey rushed at Broderick he called for them to stand back and almost immediately fired his revolver. William Larkin was fatally wounded by the shot. Several witnesses testified to the previous good reputation of Broderick.

In his charge to the jury Judge Stowe said that unless a person was in grave danger of bodily harm he was not justified in shooting a man. A severe beating, such as was imminent, would not justify homicide; with two policemen present the danger could not be great to the defendant. At the adjournment of court the jury had not returned a verdict.

The following were found guilty: Mary Perrine, abandoning an infant; A. S. Karr, embezzlement from the Eclipse Manufacturing Company; Michael Stulak, feloniously cutting Andy Humanic in the shoulder. Joseph Luers pleaded guilty of larceny and was sent to the workhouse for 10 months. James Stanton acknowledged the theft of a suit of clothes and was sent to the workhouse for three months.

MANY WILLS FILED.

James Rafferty Leaves Large Part of Estate to Church Associations.

Michael Mahar's Queer Case.

More wills were filed for probate in the office of Register Edwards, yesterday, than in any one day for years.

Among them was the will of James Rafferty of Allegheny. To his widow, Matilda R. Rafferty, is bequeathed the personal estate, worth $11,750, the homestead, No. 1009 Cedar avenue, and property at Nos. 814,1108 and 1211 Federal street, Allegheny; also a life interest in property at Nos. 1209 and 1211 Federal street, and at her death No. 1209 goes to James Richey Milligan and his mother, while one-half of No. 1211 goes to Mrs. Clara Milligan McFaill, and the other half to her three daughters. The property at No. 1213 Federal street is to be sold and Lizzie Richey, Nettie and Mary R. Richey, Benjamin Quay, Belmont U. R. Church, in Ireland, and Anna Martha Conlin each get $500. The residue goes to H. C. Harshaw of Sharon.

Property in Reserve township is left to Dr. David and John R. Gregg; No. 1208 Race street, Allegheny, to John G. Reevers; No. 1206 to the National Reformed Freedmen association for church extension and ministerial relief, in equal shares; No. 1210 Race street in equal shares to the association for indigent ministers and their widows, colored orphans' home and First Day nursery; No. 1212 Race street to the home and foreign missions of the United Presbyterian church.

Letters were granted to Trust Officer C. S. Gray of the Fidelity Title & Trust Company on the estate of Letitia C. Hamilton, who died in October, 1897. The estate is worth $155,000.

The intentions of Michael Mahar in making his will were undoubtedly proper, but he had a queer way of expressing them, as is shown by the following:

"I give and bequeath all my estate, personal and real, to my executor hereafter mentioned, and instruct my executor to use $150 in cash in case he should die from his present sickness."

The testator names James Cullihen executor. The estate is worth $675.

SENT OUT CIRCULARS.

Printed Matter Introduced in the Kaufield Will Contest to Show Weak Mind.

The hearing in the contest over the will of Elias Kaufield, late of the South Side, was continued yesterday before Judge Evans. The only evidence in addition to that brought out in orphans' court was the offering of a circular written and printed by the decedent. The circular was headed: "To Friends of Morality and Truth."

Reference in it was made to certain persons as "blacklegs," and the author goes on to state that his name has been blackened, calling upon "friends of morality and truth" to fear not the wrath of the degraded. The circular was put in evidence to show the weak condition of his mind.

HOWLEY FILES ANSWER.

Denies That His Brother Was a Partner in a Contracting Firm.

An answer was filed yesterday in common pleas court No. 2 by William E. Howley to the bill in equity of his brother, Martin F. Howley, to obtain an accounting of a partnership in the contracting business.

The defendant says the plaintiff's name might have been used during the performance of contract work, but there was never a partnership between them. He declares that while the contract for building eight miles of the Paw Paw branch of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was drawn in the name of W. E. and M. F. Howley, doing business as W. E. Howley & Company, M. F. Howley was not a partner of the defendant, but the plaintiff's name was used without consulting him, the defendant, at the time, intending to give the plaintiff an interest in the contract, not as a partner, but in lieu of a salary.

Today's League Games.

New York at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Cincinnati.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 24.—If the National league owners entered upon any plan of campaign in the present baseball war at the meeting they held tonight in their headquarters in the St. James building they were careful to conceal it after they had adjourned.

There were present A. H. Soden of Boston, John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach of Philadelphia, Charles Ebbitts and Ned Hanlon of Brooklyn, Max Fleischmann of Cincinnati, Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh, James A. Hart of Chicago, Andrew Freedman and Fred Knowles representing New York, and John T. Brush. The only absentee was Frank DeH. Robinson of St. Louis, who was prevented from coming by a business engagement.

The Entry of the American.

A leading topic of discussion was the possibility of the American league securing grounds in New York. "Ban" Johnson, president of that organization, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday, and it was rumored that he came here to close a lease for grounds.

One story had it that Johnson had shown a telegram purporting to state that he could have a certain property in East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street for a baseball park. As there is no available space in that street it was thought that One Hundred and Eighty-seventh street might have been intended where, it is said, a ground with a small diamond could be laid out. Other grounds that the American league is known to have in view are certain flats in the Bronx, which could only be fitted up the expenditure of a large sum of money.

Behind the American league it is said to be some powerful railroad interest in which the Goulds are involved, but it is scarcely likely that the Gould interests would be used to take possible traffic away from the Eighth avenue "L."

The league owners carefully went over the subject of the players. They are aware of the fact that several of the so-called "stars" have accepted terms with both organizations, and in some instances have signed contracts with both leagues. It was decided that league clubs would be more careful in the future about acting as rivals in bidding up the salaries of the players. Some of the latter have been using the bids of clubs in the same league to increase their salaries.

Baltimore to Be Dropped.

It is generally believed that the American league intends to drop Baltimore from its circuit. No effort has been made to engage players for another season and recently the games have been transferred from that city, to the disgust of Baltimore enthusiasts. If Baltimore is dropped New York will, of course, be substituted if a club can be placed here.

The National league owners were in no particular hurry to commit themselves as to the advisability of expanding their circuit to a 12-club organization for next year, although there has been much talk of it.

THE CHAMPIONS WERE WINNERS AT MONTREAL

Pirates Were Led by Honus Wagner and Gave a Fine Exhibition of the Game.

MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The Pittsburgh champions were greeted here by a large crowd this afternoon and did not have much trouble taking an exhibition game from Montreal by a score of 8 to 3.

The champions were without Manager Clarke, who was called home by the dangerous illness of his sister, and the team was handled by Honus Wagner, who was given a great reception. The two-time pennant winners put up a great exhibition of the game and took full advantage of the least slip-up on the part of the locals. The chief offender was Stafford, whose errors allowed the Pirates five of their eight runs.

McLaughlin pitched a steady and clever game for the champions and Dunleavy for the locals surprised his friends by striking out seven of the visitors. The champions left here tonight for Worcester, Mass., where they play tomorrow. The score by innings:

Pittsburgh	3	0	0	1	1	1	0	0	2	—8
Montreal	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	0	—3

Batteries—McLaughlin and Smith; Dunleavy and Fuller.

ALL KINDS OF RECORDS.

Automobiles Are Speedy—Harvard Student Makes Many New Marks.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 24.—World's records were smashed at Narragansett park today and the second annual race meeting of the Rhode Island automobile club was a great success despite execrable weather.

George C. Cannon was the sensation of the day. He clinched his title to the steam championship of the world by driving the famous car of his own construction in 1:05¾, the fastest mile ever made over the Narragansett park track. The previous world's record was 1:07 2-5, held by Mr. Cannon himself. Then to complete his fame, the young Harvard student set a new world's record for steam cars for five miles at 6:05, flat, reducing the previous mark from 6:43 1-5, another record of his own. His time by quarters for his world's record was :16½, :33, :49¾, 1:06¾. His five mile record was 1:22¾, 2:29¾, 3:41½, 4:54, 6:05.

Alexander Winton and his "Bullet" were held back by the strong wind, but they covered six miles in 6:39 3-5. Five miles were covered in 5:39 3-5 and the fastest single mile was 1:05 3-5. The slowest of Winton's first five miles was faster than any time of Fournier last year.

Percy Owen won the 30-horse power and the free for all gasoline classes and the sweepstakes. Mr. Owen also won the sweepstakes a year ago.

The first race for motor bicycles five miles was won by George M. Headees' Indian in 6:34 2-5. The open class for electric carriages two miles was won by Knight Neftel in a car of his own make. His time was 4:23.

Then Alexander Winton and his "Bullet" in the five mile race broke the track record the first time around in 1:06½. The second mile was in 1:05¾, the third in 1:06½, the fourth in 1:06¾ and the fifth, the fastest, in 1:05 3-5. The heavy wind prevented him completing ten miles. Later he made another attempt but was even less successful.

A gasoline machine under 1,300 pounds went five miles in 7:42½.

The special race for touring cars was won by F. Tudor, Jr., of Boston. Percy Owen with Winter's Pup made the five miles in 6:25¾, to win the gasoline class limited to 30 horse power. He won the free for all five miles in 6:43½ and the sweepstakes same distance in 6:44¾. A special race for motor bicycles was won by John Ruel five miles in 6:50½.

FINE BOXING CLUB.

Jack Fogarty Will Manage It in Quaker City.

Writing from Philadelphia, Jack Fogarty, the well-known pugilist, says: "I have decided to reopen the famous old Ariel Athletic club and give therein boxing entertainments for the benefit of the public. The new club house is by far the most convenient of any in this city; within a stone's throw of the city hall, midway between the two big railway terminals and is passed by all the leading street car lines of the city. Every effort will be made to meet with public approval, and the club is certain to be a winner.

"It offers to professional boxers of reputation the best inducements to be had in this city, and none but those of the best standing will be engaged to appear here. A boxer securing an engagement at the club is assured of the use of a splendidly appointed gymnasium fully equipped with all paraphernalia with track and shower bath thrown in, a train if he chooses to get himself in condition in this city. I would like to hear from all boxers and managers of boxers who are willing to compete in this city."

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The Harvard A. C. is anxious to secure a game for Saturday with a 65 to 75-pound football team. Address William C. Wolf, box 855, Duquesne, Pa.

The Sewickley Y. M. C. A. football team would like a game, to be played in Sewickley this Saturday, with any first-class football team, expenses guaranteed. Address T. E. Sweeney, manager.

All candidates for the Lincoln Football team of the East End are requested to report Saturday afternoon at P. A. C. park for the purpose of electing officers and devising ways and means for the coming season.

The Brilliant A. C. of the East End challenge 90 to 70-pound teams. The members are requested to report at practice Friday evening in uniforms. For games address R. C. Walmer, 115 Ross avenue, Wilkinsburg.

The manager of the Lowell A. C. wishes to state that their dates for this season are filled and is sorry that he has to refuse so many teams. All players are requested to report for practice Friday night at 7:30 o'clock without fail.

The Flavels of the East End were out for practice Tuesday evening and went through a hard practice. They still have a few open dates and would like to hear from 90-pound teams. For games address J. Heisey, Marchand street city, or George A. Tierney, 512 Carnegie building, Pittsburgh.

The management of the Franklin football team kindly requests the parties who wrote to him within the last few days to rewrite again, as an accident happened destroying the mail. The letter from Emsworth was received. Address Harry Himelblue, 821 Fifth avenue, city.

The baseball team which played under the Sequot name the last of this season, organized for next season last week and will be out for the 17-year-old championship. Edward Quinn was elected captain and Martin Clatyon manager. They will appear under a new name. Managers of other teams will do well to watch for name next spring.

Sewickley High school will have a first-class football team this year. Arrangements are being made to have a coach from the city to come down a couple of times a week and coach them. The school has also made dates for games with any 95-pound team in Western Pennsylvania. Address Albert M. Branum, Thorn street, Sewickley.

The Guarantee Title & Trust Company has organized a hockey team which Manager Borchers thinks will make all banks and trust companies hustle for her honors. They would like to arrange their first game with T. Mellon & Sons' bank for a benefit, giving proceeds. The following players will be tried for positions: C. C. Borchers, A. A. Brady, J. S. Cluley, E. T. Trusdell, C. W. Rent, H. R. Moor and C. Hunter. They would like to arrange with all banks and trust companies for all holidays or any dates suiting. Address Manager C. C. Borchers, 224 Frick building. Phone 2240 Court.

The East Liberty basketball team held a very fast practice on Tuesday evening, going through lots of work and ending up by playing a picked team, easily defeating them. Although East Liberty scored over half a hundred points, they could just as easily made it one hundred, but as they were out for team work very little attention was paid to goals. The score showed that Orr and the Seibels have not lost their ability to case the ball, while little Charley Bauer also had a good eye. Kallock and Brennan's defensive work was very good. Practice will be kept up every Tuesday and Friday until the opening of the season.

The Imperials have disbanded for the season after playing 25 games. Their record for season is 19 victories and 6 defeats, or a percentage of .760. They have defeated such teams as the Millvale Juniors, Civic club, Malvin Reserves, Onedias, W. T. Wards, etc. They have only been defeated by such teams as the Hans Wagners, Millvale Juniors, Civic club, Munhall etc. In yesterday's papers the Wagners claimed the 13 and 14-year-old championship by defeating the Imperials. The Imperials wish to say that the Wagner team is a 16 and 17-year-old team and that a team of that age cannot claim the 13 and 14-year-old championship. The Imperials now claim the championship of their class.

RILLING AND CREASY TRY TO AROUSE THINGS

Conferred With Leading Democratic Lights Yesterday and Were Very Secretive.

There was apparent much dissatisfaction and a corresponding amount of secretiveness after the meeting of the Democratic state campaign committee at the Hotel Henry yesterday. Both Chairman John S. Rilling of this committee and the state chairman, "Farmer" W. T. Creasy, insisted that all is lovely and that the state is burning with enthusiasm to get at the Republican candidates with a long knife; but if any progress toward adding fuel to this flame was made yesterday they did not know it.

"Just the discussion of general campaign matters," said Chairman Creasy, when asked what had been going on in the meeting. There is to be a meeting of the state executive committe at Harrisburg tomorrow, and of this also he said that routine campaign matters are the occasion.

Those present at yesterday's meeting beside Creasy and Rilling were National Committeeman J. M. Guffey, at whose office a later conference was held; J. K. P. Hall of Ridgway, John F. Ancona of Reading, Charles P. Donnelly of Philadelphia, John B. Head of Greensburg and J. Wood Clark of Indiana. Robert E. Wright of Allentown and James Kerr of Clearfield were unable to be present. P. Gray Meek of Clearfield, secretary of the state executive committee, and W. J. Brennen of Pittsburgh were also present part of the time.

THINK IT IS CARTER.

Colored Man Arrested at Rochester, N. Y., May Be Sheehy's Murderer.

A telegram was received last night at the bureau of detectives from Superintendent of Police J. P. Cleary of Rochester, N. Y., stating that a colored man had been arrested there answering the description of Silas Carter, who shot and killed Policeman James Sheehy on May 17. The telegram stated that the suspect had been identified as Carter by a Jew junk dealer who formerly lived in Pittsburgh, near Carter's abiding place in Poplar alley. Superintendent Cleary was requested to hold the man. Detectives will probably go to Rochester today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—The Philadelphia American league team, popularly known as the "Athletics," defeated Baltimore twice today, and thus won the championship of the league for 1902. The new champions fought hard for both games. Good, opportune hitting won the first contest. In the second game the home players tied the score in the eighth inning on a single and two doubles. They won in the ninth, after two men were out, on two bases on balls and a wild pitch on which Hartzel scored from second base. Attendance 7,781. The scores:

GETTING GOOD WORK.

Coach Greene Is Drilling W. & J. Talent Very Hard.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—This was the most favorable day of the week for football practice and the work done by the W. & J. squad was most encouraging to the coaches. The weather was cool and in great contrast to that of the past few days. A larger squad than usual was out for practice and new men are coming to try for a position on the varsity every day. In spite of the entire back field being a new one, Coach Greene stated today that it would be as fast as that of last year and said he had no forboding in regard to the strength of this department of the playing. He says according to the thirty days of play, the line must be heavy, and for this reason he has issued a call for heavy men from the various classes to report for practice at College park. Coach Greene has the entire assistance of the candidates and is getting good work out of them.

WESTMINSTER ELEVEN.

New Talent Must Be Developed, as Old Players Have Gone.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Coach Edmundson has taken charge of the Candidates for the Westminster eleven and formal practice has begun. Eight members of last year's team were graduated in June. Cleland is out of college this year and Lamble will not be a candidate so that there are seven places to fill. Only Captain Pennent and Captain Parisen are the only last year's players who are back. Nearly all the members of last season's scrub eleven have returned and there are several promising new men. Among these are Sampson, who played end on last year's Syracuse University eleven; McBride of Muskingum, Rudolph of Elders Ridge academy, and Scott of Slippery Rock normal. The opening game will be played with West Virginia University on October 4 at Morgantown.

Are Tied For The Medal.

IRWIN, PA., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—At the Gun club shoot for the Brown gold medal today John Withrow won, hitting 45 out of 50. Ross Withrow was second, with 44. As the gold medal race now stands John Withrow and Dr. Taylor have won it three times each at the weekly shoots. Three more contests will determine who will finally win the trophy. In the 100 blue rock shoot Ross Withrow was first, with 94; Edward Brown, second, with 90, and Frank Wolf, third, with 86. The Irwin Gun club has completed arrangements for its open shoot October 9 and 10. There will be 12 events each day and some of the crack shots of Western Pennsylvania are already on the entry list.

SCHOOL PIGSKIN STARTS ROLLING

HIGH SCHOOL WON FROM MELVIN A. C., 21 TO 0.

Public School Players Made a Good Showing—Coach Lalus Not Ready to Pick Team.

The local interscholastic gridiron was initiated to the season of 1903 yesterday with a victory for the Pittsburgh High school football eleven over the Melvin A. C. of Herron hill by a score of 21 to 0. Coach Jim Lalus, the noted local player formerly with the Lalus A. C., and the famous P. A. C., was in attendance on the public school players, over whom he will have charge this season. He stated that he was well pleased with high school's showing in the opening game, but would not select the regular team for several weeks yet.

The high school team, which will average about 151 pounds, had to work hard in defeating its opponents of yesterday, but won victory on superiority behind the line. Little impression could be made on the Melvin line, which held five veterans, but Murphy, aided by some good interference, was enabled to circle the ends for long runs, and touchdowns three times during the game, while Harrison made the other score.

But one score was made in the first half, Murphy touching the pigskin down behind the line after a hard run. Goal was not kicked and the score ended 1 to 0. In the second half Murphy scored a minute after play had started. The second was scored by Harrison after 11 minutes of play and the final score by Murphy about a minute before the call of time. The only goal kicked was Murphy's for his touchdown.

The line-up of the high school team was repeatedly changed during the play, Coach Lalus giving all of the candidates a chance to show what they could do. High school will continue the practice games, but will not play its opening school game until October 6, when East Liberty academy will be met at Friendship park. The first game between school teams will take place on Friday between Shadyside and East Liberty on the Shadyside grounds.

The Pittsburgh high school schedule, as completed to date is as follows: October 6, East Liberty academy; October 8, Elders Ridge at Elders Ridge; October 25, Kiskiminetas at Saltsburg; October 28, Elders Ridge at Pittsburgh; October 30, Shadyside at Friendship park; November 10, Kiskiminetas at Pittsburgh; November 19, East Liberty academy; November 22, California Normal school at California; November 27, Greensburg High school at Greensburg. Games are being arranged with McPleasant and Johnstown. In yesterday's game the teams played as follows:

BERRY GETS BACK.

Enthusiastic Over New Football League and the Pittsburgh Eleven.

David J. Berry, manager of the Pittsburgh football team, yesterday returned from Philadelphia, where he attended the meeting of the football league. Mr. Berry was enthusiastic over the prospects of the new league this season, declaring that Pittsburgh will have better football this fall than ever before. Berry admits that the Philadelphia teams are strong, but he has no hesitation in saying that Pittsburg will have a better team than those in the other two of the state.

Charles Lloyd Burney, the strong man, has been added to the list of players on the Pittsburgh team. Barney played at Latrobe with Berry when the latter had a big team at that place. The suits to be worn by the Pittsburgh team arrived yesterday and they are beauties. The colors are scarlet and white.

EDGEWORTH GOLFERS WON A CLOSE MATCH

Pittsburgh Golf Club Defeated at Sewickley by Score of 16 to 13. King in Fast Form.

The Edgeworth golf team scored its second victory of the fall season yesterday, defeating the Pittsburgh club six at Sewickley by a score of 16 to 13. The contest offered some fast golf by members of both teams, W. L. King, Jr., who defeated David Hays by 8 holes, playing the fastest game. He went the first nine holes in 36 strokes and came in in 40 for a 76. The most closely contested match was that between Blair and C. H. McVay. The advantage alternated from the start and Blair finally won, though McVay, with 77 strokes, had the best medal score of his side. McVay is but a boy, and the difference in the ages of the contestants added to the interest of the match. Nevin was 2 up at the 14th hole on T. K. Laughlin, but the latter took four straight holes. The Hutchinson-Arbuthnot match was closely fought from the start, and they were all even at the 15th hole, but Hutchinson finished strong, taking the last three.

The semi-final matches in the handicap match play tournament for the cups offered by F. M. Hutchinson and R. P. Nevin, Jr., will be played this afternoon starting at 2 o'clock instead of tomorrow, as originally scheduled. At 2:30 o'clock the qualifying round for the women's handicap match play tournament will be started. The finals in both will be played Saturday.

This afternoon W. H. Haines with 2 strokes handicap will meet S. S. Liggett, while C. B. McVay, Jr., will have a handicap of two strokes over his brother, C. H. McVay.

In yesterday's match the two teams played as follows:

THE BIG STAKE WAS CAPTURED BY LORD DERBY

The Horse Dropped the First Heat, Then Took Three Straight.

THE TEAM RECORD WAS TWICE REDUCED.

There Was a Great Crowd Out To See the Going at Readville and Some Fine Sport Was Witnessed—Exciting Finishes.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

READVILLE, MASS., Sept. 24.—Twenty-one thousand dollars in purses was offered for the events of the New England breeders' meet at the Readville track today. Lord Derby captured the $10,000 purse in the 2:07 trot, while the other big purse, $7,000 for the New England futurity for foals of 1899, was won by The Rajah, sired by the Prince of India.

Another feature of the program was the trial by B. F. Dutton's pacing team, Dariel (2:05¼) and Connor (2:03¼), against their own team record of 2:10. They made two trials and in each succeeded in lowering their former record a second and a quarter. The 4-year-old trotter King David also went away against 2:30¼ and did the mile in 2:21¾. There were but four entries in the 2:07 trot. Lord Derby drew the pole, with Chain Shot next, then Onward Silver and Anzella outside. Some little difficulty was encountered in scoring the first heat, Lord Derby coming down slowly. Finally the judges threatened to fine Speer unless he drove Lord Derby down with the others and a good start was made. Lord Derby broke just before starting and Anzella took the pole and led all around and finished first, Lord Derby just escaping the distance flag. In the second heat Chain Shot took the lead, with Anzella second and Lord Derby way behind at the half; but here Lord Derby began to assert his rights and he rapidly overhauled the field, beating Chain Shot by a head. In the third and fourth heats Lord Derby outclassed the others and won easily.

The New England futurity stakes brought out six starters. The bay horse Direct View ran away from the others in the first heat and won in 2:16½, but went up in the air in each of the two succeeding heats, which were both won by The Rajah in slower time than the first heat.

The best racing of the day occurred in the 2:09 pace, the game little horse Locanda winning a popular victory after losing the second heat through a break.

A field of nine horses started in the 2:24 trot. The Louisville mare Maxine won in straight heats. Summary:

THE CARRIERS MUST NOT SEEK SCALP OF LOUD

Postoffice Department Puts Its Foot Down Upon Effort to Defeat Him.

CHIEF CLERK BROUGHT TO BOOK.

He Had Gone to California to Work Against the Congressman, When His Leave of Absence Was Cancelled.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, 603 Fifteenth St., N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.

The postoffice department today took summary action to prevent the letter carriers from fighting against the re-election of Representative Loud of California, because, as chairman of the house committee on postoffices and post roads, he opposed the efforts to increase the pay of carriers.

The president of the Letter Carriers' association, Mr. Keller of Cleveland, within a few days has been re-elected to that position. It is understood he was presented with $1,000 by the association to pay his traveling expenses. He proceeded to San Francisco. The attention of the department was called to that fact, and also to the fact that it was believed his mission there was antagonistic to the election of Representative Loud.

Mr. Howley, chief clerk of the office of the first assistant postmaster general, at once telegraphed the facts to Mr. Wynne and received instructions to cancel the leave of Mr. Keller if in his judgment that was desirable in order to prevent this interference in an election. Mr. Howley today cancelled the leave of Mr. Keller by telegraph. He must return to Cleveland and resume his duties as a letter carrier or retire from the service.

The department will give prompt attention to information that any letter carrier is using the influence of his position to defeat the election of Mr. Loud, as that would be clearly in violation of the civil service rules and would warrant immediate dismissal.

The following Pennsylvania rural free delivery routes will be established November 1: Harrison Valley, Potter county, one route, area covered, 18 square miles; population to be served, 783. The postoffice at Whites Corners will be supplied by rural carrier. Westfield, Tioga county, five routes, area covered, 65 square miles; population served, 2,691. The postoffices at Azelta, Brookfield, Clymer, Purple Brook and Sylvester will be discontinued and the postoffice at Northfield to be supplied by rural carriers.

Postmasters were appointed today as follows: Pennsylvania—Buena Vista, Allegheny county, John C. Muse. West Virginia—Rock View, Wyoming county, Boyd B. Stewart; Twiggs, Pleasant county, O. C. Henry.

TWO SIAMESE PRINCES WILL VISIT AMERICA

Heir to the Throne Will be Accompanied by His Brother—Purpose is to Study Industries.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—The Siamese minister conferred with Assistant Secretary of State Peirce today respecting the coming visit of Chowfa Maha Vajiravudh, the crown prince of Siam. The visit will be semi-official.

The crown prince does not wish to be burdened with a full official reception, but does wish to have sufficient official recognition to insure comfort in his movements and opportunities to meet persons who may assist him in his mission, which is to study our industrial establishments. The royal visitor will spend about six weeks in this pursuit, traversing the country from New York to San Francisco.

The president has designated Assistant Secretary Peirce to represent the government in looking after the comfort of the crown prince, whose expenses will be defrayed by himself, except in small matters.

Prince Chakrabongse, brother of the crown prince, will be one of the royal visitor's suite. The crown prince will sail for New York on October 10 and will be presented to President Roosevelt at the first suitable opportunity. Both of the Siamese princes speak English perfectly and are in large part European bred.

ISLAND FREE TRADE.

Gov. Taft Assures the Filipinos Its Realization is Matter of a Few Years.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—The bureau of insular affairs today furnished to the press copies of the speech made by Gov. Taft on the occasion of the reception tendered him when he arrived in the Philippine islands. The governor explained at length his negotiations with the Vatican on the question of friars' lands.

In the course of the speech Gov. Taft said on the tariff question:

"You can be very sure that it will be only a matter of a year or two before the American duty on Philippine products will be reduced to so small a figure as to make it practically free trade. Delays in congressional action on the tariff, and postponement of the time for a popular assembly, are only the outgrowth of a conservatism due to a doubt on the part of many as to real conditions in the islands, a doubt, I may say, which nothing will so quickly dispel as a quiet prosecution of agriculture and other pursuits and an avoiding of useless political agitation for the next year."

TRIBUTES WERE PAID TO MEMORY OF LOVED PASTOR

Sorrowing Crowds Present at Funeral of Dr. William J. Reid.

SIMPLICITY WAS MARK OF SERVICES.

Neither Pomp Nor Ceremony Was Evident in Church of Which Dead Man Had Been Pastor for Over Forty Years.

Quiet simplicity marked the services yesterday afternoon in the First United Presbyterian church over the remains of the dead pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. J. Reid. A few white roses and lilies about the casket and on the rostrum, and a band of crepe draped from the big organ, were the external marks of mourning. But in the vast crowd that filled the church long before the services began there was many a sad heart.

Seldom has Pittsburgh seen such unbounded sorrow expressed for the death of one of her citizens. In the crowd of 2,000 that sat or stood for almost two hours there were men from every station in life.

Service Was Impressive.

The service was solemnly impressive. The Rev. John G. Brown opened with a prayer and the Rev. A. C. Wallace, who had been associated with Dr. Reid probably longer than any other man, gave a brief sketch of his life. The Rev. D. F. McGill spoke of the wonderful industry and capacity for work possessed by Dr. Reid, and the Rev. J. K. McClurkin spoke on the greatness of the man. In his address Dr. McClurkin said:

"This gathering of many beneath this roof today is in itself a tribute of honor and respect to the memory of this great man, who in the long years of his service in Christ's work was so earnest, enthusiastic and diligent, and who to hundreds of us, both young and old, was a father and an adviser.

"It is not until death overtakes such a man as Dr. Reid that we fully realize just how big a part of our lives he has been, how potent has been his influence for good, and what a bulwark he was in the church. Not often is it the privilege of man to know such a man as was the pastor of this church. A man truly great, yet with all the kindness of a real father, even to those who knew him but slightly, he will live in our memories until that time comes when we, too, shall be called across the bar to meet our Maker and our friends."

A Saddened Crowd.

The Rev. William McMillan rendered a prayer that was followed by an anthem sung by the church choir of four voices. It was Moody's "I Shall Be Satisfied," and with the first note a profound hush settled down over the vast crowd. Every head in the house was bowed and hundreds of eyes were dimmed with tears. On the pulpit sat the white-headed men who had for years been fellow-workers with the dead pastor; beneath them sat the people, whose spiritual adviser he had been for as long as some of them could remember. It was an impressive moment.

Resolutions of honor, love and respect had been sent in large numbers and Dr. McClurkin announced that it would be useless to endeavor to read all of them. Only those from the Pittsburgh Ministerial association, the Young Men's Christian association, the Monongahela presbytery, Allegheny Theological seminary, and the Home for Aged Couples at Edgewood were read. Mrs. Rigdaffer, the church soprano, sang "The Lord's My Shepherd," the words being set to the tune of "Lead, Kindly Light." The church services were concluded in prayer led my Dr. McMillan.

The casket was still open and the big crowd slowly filed down the right-hand aisle to the bier, and pausing to look for a moment, left the church by the west door. Only the close friends of Dr. Reid had been asked to the cemetery, and it was a small band that, standing in a drizzling rain, heard the Rev. Mr. McClurkin pronounce the benediction over the open grave.

Facts of Interest About Furs.

The furs most in demand are those that are most rare, and hence the most valuable.

Fashion, occasionally, does decree that an ordinary fur is the mode, but this applies, generally, for only a single season.

For instance Persian lamb, exclusive in the Rue de la Paix, where are located the great couturiers such as Worth, Doucet, Beer and Paquin, say that petit gris, or gray squirrel, is the chic fur to be employed in an endless variety for winter wear, as well as a trimming for costumes.

Some furs, however, chiefly owing to their scarcity, are always in demand. Especially is this the case as regards sable—the trappings of royalty—as this exquisite fur is frequently called, owing to its being largely used by all the nobility and wealthier classes abroad.

Pittsburgh is noted for its collections of art, jewels, and the discriminating taste of its people in the matter of personal outlay—hence sables, on account of their value and beauty, are highly appreciated here.

Realizing this, the Joseph Horne Co. have this season made direct importation from Russia of large quantities of Imperial Crown Russian Sables, and are displaying in one of their show-windows a magnificent Automobile Coat, valued at seven thousand five hundred dollars, as an example of the richness and beauty that handsome furs exemplify.

SCHEME TO MAKE LARKIN DISLIKED

BROWN AND LESLIE PLAN ANOTHER MOVE.

Proposition Is for Another Engine House in Twenty-third Ward.

Recorder J. O. Brown and Director A. H. Leslie have another engine house on the tapis. This one is for the Twenty-third ward. Meanwhile the contract for the Thirty-second ward engine house has not yet been sent to Controller John B. Larkin, and when it is sent that official will not approve it because it is known that it is to be paid for with bond money which ought to be used in the construction of the municipal hospital.

"I will not say what I will do concerning the matter in advance," said Controller Larkin yesterday, when asked concerning the contract for the Thirty-second ward house. "I have no knowledge that there was such a contract awarded, except that I saw it noted in the newspapers, and I do not want to state at this time what will be done with it. I understand that it is to cost $24,000. I do not know where they are to get the money. It would not be fair, however, for me to take any action toward that contract, when it has not yet reached my office."

The engine house cannot be built until Controller Larkin countersigns the contract, and it is known that he will have nothing to do with it, because he expects to have every cent now remaining in the fund from which it is proposed to build the proposed engine house used for the municipal hospital. The amount in the fund is $125,000. Controller Larkin believes that no less an amount can build a hospital such as Pittsburgh needs. This fund, as provided in the bond issue, was for $300,000, and it was intended that the entire amount should be expended in building a municipal hospital. Drains have been made on it for other engine houses, however, until only $125,000 is left. The machine now aims to spend $45,000 of this in engine houses and use only $80,000 for a hospital.

The new Twenty-third ward engine house is to cost about $16,000. It will not be palatial, according to the officials of the bureau of fire, but will be simple, and just what is needed in Hazelwood. But it will be blocked also by the controller, as it is expected to meet the expense of this also from the bond issue. This engine house is intended to play some part in the political fight this fall. The Twenty-third ward has clamored for an additional engine house for several years, not because a new one is especially needed, but because in the grand distribution it was thought well to get in line.

No attempt was made to comply with the demand until it was the position Controller Larkin could be expected to take was known. Then steps were taken for a new engine house for Hazelwood. It was safe enough, as it was well known that the controller would not countersign the contract, and thereby, it was figured, the onus of the entire matter could be thrown on Larkin.

Improvements are to be made also in engine houses in different parts of the city. Bids are to be received for painting a number of them and otherwise improving them.

Ordinances have already been introduced providing for various sums to be placed in the appropriation ordinance next year for engine houses. A site is to be purchased and an engine house erected in the Twenty-second ward. There is also one to be built in the First ward, and there are several other wards that are to get similar treatment.

Dance at the Auditorium.

The first dance of the season in the South Highland auditorium was given last evening by the Pittsburgh council, Knights of Pythias. During the evening the card room was arranged for euchre and the tables were surrounded by those who did not dance. Later supper was served; it was a very pretty affair.

The auditorium was seen for the first time this season in its new decorations. The ball room has been completely redecorated and the stage has been equipped with new curtains, harmonizing with the deep red of the walls. Many new lights have been added, making the lighting brilliant in effect. The halls and corridors, leading to the ball room, are decorated in pale pea green and gold, and the dining room in a soft, pretty blue. The card rooms, on the floor below the ball room, are especially attractive.

The commencement exercises of the School of Domestic Arts will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock. At this time, there will also be an exhibition and sale of foods prepared by the graduating class to which those interested are invited. Miss Gwendolyn Stewart, the new principal of the school, is a graduate of the Leland Stanford university and of Pratt institute, and is a young woman of rare executive ability and intellectual attainments. She comes to the school admirably qualified for the work.

J. G. ROAK COMPANY'S OPENING.

A Successful Beginning Made by the New Retail Establishment.

The opening Tuesday of the J. G. Roak Company proved of more than ordinary interest to the throngs of visitors. The beautiful store was declared a decided success, despite the uncompleted condition of the building, owing to tardiness of contractors, its appointments meeting the approval of all, calling forth many favorable comments.

Naturally, the majority of visitors were of the gentler sex, as the store appeals exclusively to women.

The elaborate and artistic display of the very newest ideas in suits, waists, cloaks, costumes, neckwear, silk petticoats, furs, etc., received a deserving praise. The store could not have started its career at a more opportune time of the year, reaping the benefit of the influx of Exposition visitors to Pittsburgh during September.

This is the month of all the year when no one with a proper appreciation of beauty can fail to observe that the world of women is endeavoring to realize its opportunities from the dress point of view. The importance of being "well Dressed," might be chosen as a sub-title to the social drama of the hour. The J. G. Roak Company's store possesses so many attractive elements and innovations, that it cannot fail to prove a decided factor in the dress problem with the feminine portion of this community and its environments. It is unquestionably the most perfectly equipped ladies' outer garment and dressmaking establishment this side of New York. Mr. J. G. Roak until this season was for a number of years associated in a similar capacity with Joseph Horne Company, where he enjoyed a large personal following, and where his extensive experience and close touch with the requirements of his patrons, who comprise the most exclusive patronage of the city, gives him advantages in his own enterprise which cannot fail to be of inestimable value to all concerned. Mr. Roak's rare skill combines exquisite good taste with a keen comprehension of the suitable for women, which come to him almost intuitively, since his entire business career has brought him in touch with the best dressers. Other features of the new establishment will be the remodeling of furs, and dressmaking to order. Mr. Roak has long enjoyed a reputation, not confined to Pittsburgh alone, as an expert in his line.

The new place is already busy with a number of orders received in advance of the opening. The house will be in direct touch with London, Paris and New York, and will have the exclusive handling of the best ready-to-wear garments in this country.

NEW HARBOR LINES.

The Government to Establish Them Between Elizabeth and Wilson.

Harbor lines are to be established on the Monongahela river from Elizabeth to Wilson, Pa., and Capt. W. L. Sibert, the local government engineer, has sent out notices requesting persons interested to call at his office October 3 at 10 a. m., where the plans will be exhibited.

For some time past there has been a disposition upon the part of certain interests to fill in the river, to the detriment of navigation, and the government intends to stop this. The establishing of harbor lines will enable property owners to tell where the low water line of their property is. No person will then be permitted to fill beyond the established lines without the permission of the secretary of war.

NUTRITION.

The difference between Ale and Porter and is as great as between skim milk and Alderney Cream.

JOHANN HOFF'S

EXTRACT

One Dozen of Johann Hoff's Extract equals in nutritive qualities a cask of ale.

Beware of ordinary beers sold as "Malt Extracts." Insist upon the Johann Hoff's Genuine Extract and you will not be disappointed.

Dorothy Dodd
TRADE MARK

We are pleased to announce that we are exclusive agents in our city for the new "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe that is now causing so big a sensation all over the country.

"Dorothy Dodd" Shoes are remarkable for more than "distinctive beauty" and "faultless fit"—they are built upon specifications furnished by a woman who has made a study of woman's requirements. They are a woman's idea of "the perfect shoe."

All the knowledge and facilities of this house have been exerted with a view to testing the claims of the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe.

We find that it not only possesses "that subtle something that lifts it above the commonplace," but that it is so easily superior in all the points of beauty, of fitting qualities and of value that we give it our unqualified indorsement.

Our opening display of "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes

Today, Friday and Saturday Sept. 25, 26 and 27th will interest you, and it will afford us pleasure to have your most critical inspection.

BIG KILLING FOR A LARGE STOCK POOL

Culmination of a Scoop Made by the Gould and Rockefeller Interests.

NOT TROUBLED BY THE LACK OF FUNDS

Wall Street Still Mixed on the Money Situation—Railroads in Bad Shape in the Matter of Fuel—Structural Company.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 24.—There is reason to believe that certain speculative interests have made a big killing on the short side of the stock market. In the sessions of Monday and Tuesday Missouri Pacific was sold on an enormous scale by the same brokers that had managed the stock's rise from around par to the extreme top at 125.

If this selling was not for the account of the Gould-Rockefeller pool, at least it was for the account of certain members thereof. It is unbelievable that this pool could have been embarrassed for want of money. Its banking connections are too well known to admit of any such presumption. It is significant, too, that the house that has been most prominently identified with the recent manipulation of Missouri Pacific, and which, as everybody knows, carries large Gould-Rockefeller accounts, has been lending large amounts of call money on the floor during this stringency. It is believed, indeed, that this very house now has several million dollars out on call. The stock's decline today to the extreme low price of 111⅞ was considered by room traders to mark the culmination of a "scoop." It may be said that nobody was able to buy any Missouri Pacific at the extreme low price. It rallied violently.

Knew What the Banks Would Do.

The suggestion is obvious and broad that members of the Gould-Rockefeller pool had advance information that the banks were preparing to put on the screws in a very drastic manner. The rest needs not to be explained.

Several stocks grouped under the name of Gould have been conspicuously weak on this market break, and it is believed that what applies to Missouri Pacific applies more or less to kindred stocks. Selling on the decline those past few days by Harris, Gates & Company and other western houses, is believed to have been good selling.

The so-called western accounts are none too well margined, as a general thing. Whole sections of them have been wiped out on this break. One of the old and well-tried maxims of Wall street is, never to sell stocks short when they become dull after a violent break.

The buying on which the market rallied today after 2 o'clock was considered good. A great deal of it was for cash. Short-covering, as a rule, is done before 2 o'clock, and if stocks rally after that time it is usually regarded as an excellent sign.

Money Situation Mixed.

The monetary situation is still greatly complicated. It is by no means certain as yet that Secretary Shaw will increase government deposits to the market value of the bonds securing the same, nor that he will resume bond redemption; but out of stock market liquidation alone, relief enough by this time ought to appear to restore reserves above the surplus mark.

The Fuel Shortage.

Reports received in this city indicate that so far as fuel supply is concerned, the railroads are in a situation worse, if anything, than before. Many locomotives that have been employed during the summer in hauling coke, coal and ore have been diverted from their districts. This naturally has served to aggravate the situation in the iron and steel districts.

Rogers, Brown & Company have received the following from their Cincinnati correspondent:

"The furnaces, while doing their utmost, are handicapped with labor troubles and shortage of fuel supply. Two furnace officials advise us that their furnaces are banked awaiting coke supply. Another advises that their coke can be had at the ovens, but the railroad along which the ovens and furnaces are located cannot supply cars and engines to keep them stocked. Most of the furnaces in blast are using the coke direct from the cars into the furnaces."

Steel Interest in Elevator Stock.

It is understood that interests identified with J. P. Morgan & Company and the United States Steel Corporation have come into possession of a large amount of Otis Elevator stock. In certain quarters it is said control now rests with Morgan interests, but no confirmation of this report can be obtained.

Otis Elevator common stock has scored a substantial rise during the last few weeks. Early in August it was quoted around 35. Recently it has been selling around 44.

It is said that in purchasing a large interest in the Otis Elevator Company the steel interests are simply following their policy of identifying themselves with concerns that are large consumers of the products of the United States Steel Corporation. The Otis Elevator Company is one of the largest purchasers of steel in the country, and is also an important patron of the General Electric Company, a large interest in which is held by J. P. Morgan and his associates.

In this connection it is interesting to note that Charles M. Schwab and other interests of the United States Steel Corporation are among the largest holders of the shares of the Realty and Construction combine, which in turn is an important patron of the Otis Elevator Company.

A few days ago the Otis Elevator Company gave formal notice to the stockholders of an increase of $2,000,000 in the preferred stock of the company. The president of the company said the new stock would be of the same character and have the same privileges and be subject to the same terms and conditions as the old preferred stock.

The directors of the company, according to the last report, are William D. Baldwin, W. H. Baker, Albert B. Chandler, C. G. Comstock, Norton P. Otis, A. G. Mills, Henry R. Reed, F. W. Roebling and J. A. Roche.

New Structural Steel Company.

The Structural Steel Supply Company was incorporated in New Jersey today with a capital stock of $750,000. The incorporators are A. F. Nevin and C. L. Gilpin of 149 Broadway, New York, and E. E. Robinson, 50 Broadway, New York. The temporary address is given as 525 Main street, East Orange, N. J.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The new ore bodies have been opened on the Red Wing, at Bingham, Utah. One is four feet wide and in virgin ground at a vertical depth of 400 feet. The other strike is along the horizon of the old stopes and is yielding ore running 45 per cent lead, 15 ounces silver and $1 gold to the ton. Six feet of ore showing free gold is exposed in the tunnel of the Brooklyn Mining Company at Park Valley.

The Ophir Company at State Line, Utah, has decided to abandon its present plant and adopt the cyanide process, which, it has been demonstrated, will save 90 per cent of the ore values.

Ore shipments from the Tintic district last week aggregated 110 car loads, of which the Dragon iron mine sent out 26; the Centennial-Eureka, 17; Grand Central, 17; Gemini 12, and Eureka Hill, 10. The Mammoth mill shipped one car of bullion.

Advices from Grangeville, Ida., last week say the Marshall lake district looks like a permanent and paying camp. Several properties are already fairly developed and one of these has been bonded for $60,000. The veins are small, but rich in gold and well defined.

Pay ore has been struck in a 200-foot tunnel on Lawlor's claim on the south side of Bald Eagle hill, Mount Hood district, Idaho Buffalo mine. A six-foot vein assaying $50 gold, 10 ounces silver and some copper is exposed.

The Metal Market.

Tin was easy and dull in the local market today, closing at 25.80@25.90c, while in London it declined 7s 6d to 6118 12s 6d for spot and to £116 10s for futures. Trade in copper was fairly active, without important changes, closing at 10.75c bid for standard, 11.60@11.75c for lake; 11.40@11.50c for electrolytic and casting. There was an easier market at London, where prices declined 6s 3d, spot closing at £58 5s, against £58 11s 3d, and futures at £58 6s for March. Lead was dull and nominal at 4.65c at home or abroad. Locally spot was 4¼c and at London £10 17s 6d. Spelter here ruled more or less nominal, with Eastern St. Louis the English market closed at £19. The pig iron market is firm, with supplies exceedingly scarce. Quotations are more or less nominal at $21.00@25.00 for No. 1 foundry northern; $22.00@25.00 for No. 2 foundry northern, No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern, soft. Warrants not quoted. English markets were a trifle lower, Glasgow closing at 58s 1d and Middlesboro at 53s 4½d.

TWO DANGEROUS BREAKS FORCED BY LIQUIDATION

Demoralization is Threatened, but Each Time Effective Rallies Are Started.

CLOSING PRICES QUIET BUT UNSETTLED.

Sellers of Day Before Became Buyers and Force Up Two Important Stocks—Banks Calling in Loans Compel Selling.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 24.—After a stormy day in the stock market the closing was quiet, but with the undertone still slightly unsettled. It was a day of violent fluctuations and of many changes in the course of prices. Twice there was a dangerous break which threatened demoralization, and twice there was an effective recovery. Just at the last there was some very large selling by holders who seemed desirous of taking advantage of the vigorous rally in force, and who seemed yet to harbor doubts whether the storms of forced liquidation had spent their force. But there was undoubtedly a very general sentiment at the close that the position of the banks had been effectually strengthened and that the violent loan contraction might be hoped to have reached its limit for the present. The news of the sighting of the steamship Majestic having on board a consignment of nearly $1,500,000 in gold was a strong sentimental influence upon the market, as was the sharp break in sterling. The opening break in prices, which ran from 1 to 5 points for the active leaders, was aggravated by the unexpected news of President Roosevelt's disability.

Given Some Reassurance.

The reports given out from the president's train served to reassure fears on that score. There was a suspicion also that Saturday's late rally in Philadelphia had been due to some advance information of the operation on the president. The consequence was that prices recovered pretty generally during the first hour. The opening rate for call loans was announced at 18 per cent, and after a momentary reaction to 15 per cent the rate soared to 25 per cent. Stocks were then unloaded in enormous volume with the demand apparently reduced to nothing. There was a heavy slump of prices throughout, which carried prices of many leading stocks from 3 to 5 points below last night's level before any effective resistance was shown to the decline. The banks were cutting down accommodations on call to brokerage firms and proceeding with the drastic measures which were inaugurated yesterday for recuperating their reserves.

Plenty for Regular Business.

Assurances were heard from all sides that abundant resources were available for all regular business purposes, but nothing further was heard of the soothing assurance that there was no danger of money flurries. The great speculative combinations which have taken out loans and bought stocks on margin on this assurance for some time past had nothing to do but to sell out their stock and repay the loans. Various estimates are current of the extent of these loans for speculative purposes, and the closeness of the combination among the speculative interests which have acted together is not clearly defined, but it is believed that resources to the extent of $60,000,000 have been subject to centralized direction in the speculative campaign which was undertaken. The action of the banks this week marked the abandonment of the hope that had been entertained that measures of relief by the treasury department and the automatic relief of gold imports would save the situation through the crop-moving period.

Government's End of Trouble.

Talk was renewed today of an intention on the part of the secretary of the treasury to increase government deposits with the banks up to the market value of the government bonds for security, but no official sanction could be secured for this report. This discussion, though, was an effective factor in the late rally in the market. Meantime, customs collections have changed the early gains by the banks this week into a loss of over $500,000 to the sub-treasury. There were deposited today at that institution $450,000 for transfer to Chicago and $100,000 for New Orleans. An effective agency in the rally was the changed attitude of the brokers for a speculative combination which sold thousands of shares yesterday, but which turned to the buying side at the low level today. Their operations were centered in the Gould stocks and resulted in carrying Western Union 1⅞ and Manhattan 2⅜ over last night's level. The smallness of the net changes generally marked the effectiveness of the second recovery in the market.

Bonds suffered quite severely in the liquidation, but rallied vigorously in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $6,170,000. United States 2s declined ⅛ and the old 4s advanced ¼ per cent on the last call.

WALL STREET FEATURES.

Total sales for the day 1,371,900 shares.

The president's illness has bad effect on the market.

Continued calling of loans forces speculators to dump thousands of shares of stock on the market, forcing serious break.

Speculators who sold Tuesday became buyers and caused rise in Western Union of 1⅞ and Manhattan 2⅜.

Bonds suffer in the liquidation. Total sales reach par value of $6,170,000.

Good rally comes late in the day and stops the decline.

The close is quiet, but with slightly unsettled undertone.

Talked About in Wall Street

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Herald this (Thursday) morning says: On the stock exchange the urgent liquidation which began on Tuesday became more violent yesterday soon after the opening and for a time a panicky feeling spread about when prices continued to crumble away without signs of any cessation.

As was the case on Tuesday, those shares in which pool and syndicate manipulation has been apparent were the heaviest sufferers. A ray of hope broke through the financial district when things were at their worse with the announcement bearing an authoritative if not official imprint that the treasury department at Washington contemplated measures of relief. The news was seized upon by the market leaders as a basis on which to stem the tide which was growing stronger every minute.

The pressure to sell lessened, prices seemed to harden under the influence of the news, and then began a recovery from the low prices of the day. The recovery was irregular at first, but there was an element of confidence extant, which ultimately reassured the speculative world of Wall street, and the upward trend of prices was continued until the close of the market.

The industrial stocks were the strongest features of the list and showed little participation at any time in the general demoralization of the day. This was taken as an indication that practically all the liquidation had been that of pools and cliques, few of which have been operating in industrials.

A few things like International Power and International Pump broke on light transactions, without altering the general characterization of strength already assigned to the industrials. Steel preferred at the lowest receded but 1¼ points, all of which it recovered. Steel common was a strong feature throughout.

The policy of calling loans was carried on aggressively by the banks. Old brokers urged and implored their customers to come to their assistance and dispose of their holdings. It seemed as if no one was spared. Old and tried customers of banks, who had been favored all along until the present time, were compelled to scurry around looking for funds. The demand, of course, made itself felt on the call money rates. As high as 13 per cent was bid at the opening, but those who had funds to loan simply scoffed.

Domestic Consumers Want No More Imported Iron

FOREIGN STEEL AND IRON LOSES ITS MARKET HERE

Pittsburgh Consumers Will Not Have It at Any Price.

IS TOO HIGH IN PHOSPHORUS AND SILICON.

Option for Some 100,000 Tons Has Been Cancelled After First Consignment Was Tried—General Strength Not Shaken.

Imported iron and steel has practically passed out as a factor in the Pittsburgh market. Both the Bessemer iron and steel sent from abroad is unsatisfactory to the domestic consumers, the iron being too high in phosphorous and silicon, with the result that the loss of time in working it leaves little advantage in the lower prices offered.

It is reported that a large consignment of foreign iron, which was to have come to this market has been headed off because, on deliveries already made by dealers, who brought it here as a substitute for their own domestic production, the material was found unsatisfactory. Some 100,000 tons were optioned. There is still some foreign foundry iron here and this is all that is available for prompt shipment. It is fairly satisfactory to the founders. A notable transaction of the past week was a sale of 40 tons of English foundry iron at $26 a ton. This is, of course, no key to the market, for most consumers are covered in their wants till next year.

The last sales of domestic foundry iron within the past 10 days, and for delivery next year, were at from $22 50 to $23 a ton on round lots delivered in Pittsburgh.

Lessened Demand for Steel.

The urgent demand for prompt steel has partly worn itself out with the result that prices are somewhat easier. Business of sufficient importance and providing for time delivery in the Bessemer billets, may be placed now at about $32. Few transactions have been made. On high-grade open-hearth billets, in small lots and for prompt delivery, recent transactions have brought prices as high as $38.

On the whole the market is somewhat of an anomaly. Premiums are still offered for early shipments of plates, structural material and steel bars, while the lighter finished lines are dragging stubbornly. There is little market for tin plate, with the leading producers holding its price of $4 at mills on large orders. A new independent concern, which recently started a plant in Southern Ohio, has been offering tin plate at sharp discounts or rebates on this price. Immediate relief from the condition of this market is impossible. The tin plate workers have again repudiated the effort of their officers to accept a 25 per cent wage reduction on such business as the leading producers might be able to head off from Wales.

Cutting Wire and Nail Prices.

Wire and wire nails some producers are meeting a light demand with reduced prices.

While not an important factor in the market, there was a sale of iron in the past week at a price which has not been reached before in 20 years. It was of 70 tons of charcoal iron, and closed at a shade under $40 a ton, delivered in Pittsburgh.

While there is some fluctuation in the finished lines, of which the quoto of production overbalances the raw material supply, a general strength in the market is bound to continue indefinitely. With a rich harvest assured and most mills crowded with business away into next, the producers believe that there is to be no disturbance of consequence that the most far-seeing could place a finger on.

There is room for a substantial increase in the furnace capacity. There will be a lot of new modern stacks, with heavy production facilities, blown in in a short time, but there is room for more, although not many. This condition arises in part from the inability of the railroads to serve their customers.

Railroads Still Blocked.

The delays on car service are as troublesome as at any time in the late summer. The finishing mills are beginning to feel this in failure to get the cars required to ship their products. Four or five of the furnaces of the Shenango and Mahoning valleys were down yesterday because there is no coke at hand, and many others are running light.

A recently rebuilt furnace at Sharpsville, the product of which goes out through M. A. Hanna & Co., was chilled. This will entail a heavy loss in the charge of material and the necessity of relining and repairing. The same thing occurred at one of the National Steel Company stacks at Youngstown recently. These losses

Extensive Liquidation Broke Prices, but the Close Was at a Sharp Rally

HIGH RATES FOR MONEY CAUSED LOSS

Local Stocks Were Affected by the Proceedings in Wall Street.

INDUSTRIAL ISSUES WENT OFF BUT RALLIED.

Bank Shares Were Quieter and Somewhat Irregular—Window Glass and United States Steel Preferred Made Gains.

The market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was thoroughly dominated by the money situation in the east and the proceedings on the New York stock exchange. The result was the sales amounted to nearly 10,500 shares, the largest in a week or more, and the closing prices were generally at losses of from ⅛ to $5 a share. In New York, money opened at 18 per cent, declined to 15, jumped to 20 and thence to 25, the highest on this movement. From that it reacted to 9 and closed finally at 18 per cent for the last loan, with offers at that rate. The sales there were 1,290,000 shares and at times the market was exceedingly weak and nervous. The close, however, was firmer and at general rallies in prices. The announcement of the operation on President Roosevelt was, fortunately, made after the stock market had closed Tuesday and by the time of the opening yesterday the public had fully digested the news, so that it had practically no effect on the market one way or another. The weakness in New York, coupled with the fact that the local money market is closer than it has been in a year or more, exerted a bearish influence on the Pittsburgh market and carried quite extensive liquidation with consequent losses. The close, however, rallied sharply and in some issues the declines were wiped out entirely and fractional advances recorded in their places. The local board was more fully covered with the sales than for months, 208 separate transactions being posted. These were divided among 27 different securities, of which five closed unchanged, seven advanced from ⅛ to $10 a share and the remainder declined from ⅛ to $5. In the banking group there was much less activity and for the first time in a week or more no new high records were reached in the selling prices. Peoples National bank at $460 bid and Dollar Savings Fund and Trust Company of Allegheny at $285 bid were higher than ever before, but no stock came out. Keystone bank sold a small lot at $390, a gain of $2 over the last bid and $10 over the last sale. American Trust was $5 lower at $120 and Colonial Trust $11 down at $385 for a small lot. Real Estate Trust opened off $6 50 at $300 ex-dividend, but advanced steadily to $311. It then reacted and finished at $310, a gain of $1 50 for the day. Final offers were made at $309 75.

In the industrials there was a general feeling of heaviness and nervousness, which caused declines. Pittsburgh Coal common sold over 2,400 shares and broke to 28⅝. It rallied, however, and finished at 29¼, a loss of only ⅝ for the day. Strange to say, there was not a sale of the preferred stock, which closed practically unchanged and firmer at 91⅝ bid, with offers at 92. River Coal common was firm and unchanged at 12½ for 600, but the preferred closed with a loss of ⅛ at 40½. Window Glass common was quiet and opened weak at 53½. It rallied sharply, however, and finished at 61, a gain for the day of ⅝. The preferred was dull and unchanged. Westinghouse Electric seconds were weak, after a firm opening, and broke to 108¼. They, too, rallied at the close and finished firmer at 109¾, a loss of but 1¼ for the day. Crucible Steel on sales of less than 800 shares broke to 22, but rallied to 22½, the opening price, and closed steady at that figure, a loss of ⅜. The preferred sold over 1,300 shares and after breaking from 86 to 85 rallied to 85¼, the loss for the day being ⅝. United States Steel common common opened at 39¾ and advanced to 40¼. It then broke to 39½ and closed with a rally at 40, sales and bid, a loss of ⅜. The preferred sold a little over 700 shares and sold down to 88, but reached its highest at the close, which was at 89⅜, a gain of ⅜ for the day. In the remaining sales the transactions were comparatively small and the changes in value without special significance. Bonds were dull and neglected.

FINANCIAL DRIFT.

Hill was a large buyer of Pittsburgh Coal common.

There were 208 separate trades posted on the board.

Fourteen issues sold all day without a fluctuation in price.

There is talk of further relief by Secretary Shaw.

Not a share of Pittsburgh Coal preferred was traded in during the day.

The Johnson Range sellers of United States Steel issues. Hill was a buyer.

The transfer books of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company will close today until October 10.

A. R. Specht & Co., members of the Consolidated exchange of New York, failed yesterday.

The sale is reported of a New York stock exchange seat at $83,000, the highest price on record.

Doty & Sutton were still bidding 12¾ for 1,000 River Coal common and offering it at 12½.

Marlin sold 200 Electric seconds at 108¼, the low point. Robinson Bros. were heavy sellers.

The first sale of the day was 100 Pittsburgh Coal common at 29¼ and the last 50 Crucible Steel common at 22½.

Hill & Co. sold a block of 500 Pittsburgh Brewing common near the opening at 30½. This was the largest single trade of the day.

Not a single new high record was reached yesterday in the selling prices. This is the first time such a thing has occurred in several days.

The directors of the Mass Consolidated Mining Company have called an assessment of $2 per share, payable $1 December 1 and $1 April 1.

There is some fear that the Bank of England may raise its discount rate today. Private discounts were higher in London yesterday.

R. C. Hall bought Real Estate Trust Company at the opening at 300 ex-dividend. This was the lowest price of the day. Penney sold it at 311 to Stevenson, which was the highest.

Robert Kocas & Co., a prominent firm of brokers at 121 South Fifth street, Philadelphia, failed yesterday.

The following is a complete summary of yesterday's official transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange. It shows the change in the closing selling prices, compared with the last preceding sales, the total sales of each security, the opening, high, low and closing prices and final bids and offers.

*Ex-dividend.

announced yesterday on the stock exchange that they were unable to meet contracts. This action is said to be due to the recent slump in the market.

Paul D. Cravath of New York, representing the Putnam syndicate of bondholders, bought the Columbus, Sandusky & Hocking railroad yesterday at the upset price of $2,750,000. He was the only bidder present. This is the first time such a thing has occurred in several days.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Allegheny Heating Company will be held at the office of the company, 955 Arch alley, Allegheny, Pa., Monday, October 6, 1902, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock a. m. Transfer books close from October 2 to October 6, both inclusive.

Wall Street Brokers' "Tips."

I should think the worst was over.

A few days like this will relieve the situation.

Today's violent liquidation has been the best thing that could happen to the market. It has shaken out people who have been over-trading and have bought good buying and will tend to raise the money market.

Tangible support on a liberal scale will be seen in Canadian Pacific, Atchison and Harriman group of stocks. Those who average on declines on these issues should make a good investing, sell on spurts of a point or two. Until money becomes conspicuously easier the market will not be safe to pyramid in. Buy stocks for turn, only.

Who face heavy liquidation and declining prices the coppers were among the very strongest stocks on the list. The character of the buying indicates that the coppers are well held and that people have confidence in their future. We believe the liquidation of the past two or three days will have a tendency to quiet the speculation in railroad stocks for a time.

PITTSBURGH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS

Sweet Potatoes Plentiful and Slightly Lower—Grapes Abundant but Firm.

Fruits and Produce.

There was a further lowering of quotations for sweet potatoes, supplies arriving more plentifully. Peaches were offered at the same quotations as ruled on Tuesday, but the market was easy with prices large. Grapes are in heavy supply, but dealers are not inclined to make concessions in price and but little cutting is reported, and that not of a serious nature. The immense supply of apples is now occupying the attention of jobbers who are taking steps to cover future wants.

WOOD STREET PROPERTY FIRST IN THE MARKET

Mark W. Watson Lot at Nos. 104-106 Purchased For $75.000.

FINE HOMES PROPOSED FOR LIBRARY.

Addition to Zoo in Highland Park Will Cost $20,000 — A Jones & Laughlin Purchase in Ross Street.

Property in the neighborhood of lower Wood street continues to be active. Another deal amounting to $75,000 came to light yesterday. This was the sale of the Mark W. Watson holdings at Nos. 104-106. The lot has a frontage of 38 feet on the east side of the street, near Grist avenue, and runs back 92.5 feet to an alley. It is improved with a four-story brick and stone building now occupied by the Thomas Wightman Glass Company. Neither the purchaser nor the broker was announced, but it is reported that the property will pass into the hands of a well-known business man. The rate of sale was a little less than $2,000 a front foot, which is the prevailing price for improved property in this part of Wood street. In spite of the frequent jumps that are made in big realty investments from one part of the downtown section to another, Wood street seems to be the leading favorite with big investors and the improvements that are now in progress or contemplated will do much to keep property values there at a high level.

Planning Model Country Homes.

One of the most unique colonization schemes that has been broached for some time around Pittsburgh is soon to be carried into effect by a number of prominent business men at Library. The promoter of the scheme is William I. Berryman of the Union Trust Company, who has purchased the F. A. Widemeyer farm of 45 acres, for about $9,000, or $210 an acre. The farm is located one mile east of Library, and faces on the new Plum macademized road. The Pittsburgh & Charleroi street railway, now being built, will run through the middle of the farm. At the price paid it is considered a rare bargain, for farms an equal distance from the city, and possessing the same advantages, are selling every week for $500 to $1,000 an acre.

Associated with Mr. Berryman in the deal are four other leading business men whose names are withheld by request. The farm will be laid out in plots of eight and ten acres each, which the purchasers propose to make model suburban home sites. Mr. Berryman has already commissioned Architects Mueller & East to prepare plans for a brick and stone residence which he will build at a cost of probably $25,000. Four other houses of a similar kind are to be built by his associates. With the added convenience of the new street car line, Library gives promise of being one of the most desirable suburbs around Pittsburgh and other business men who have bought there lately are well satisfied with their investments. William F. Hammel, the well-known restauranter, got a bargain at Library recently is the parsonage property which he got for $4,500. He has already made his home there, and is making a number of improvements to the place.

Zoo Addition Will Cost $20,000.

Highland park is to have a building booom this fall. A $20,000 addition to the Zoo is to be built from plans now being prepared by Architect Harry S. Estep. The quarters for the animals have been very cramped for some time and it was thought best while making the improvement to provide plenty of shelter for a much larger number than the Zoo now accomodates. The addition will consist of big yards with plenty of shelter houses and feeding stations. Bids are also being taken by the same architect on the three shelter houses that are proposed for the park.

Architect Estep also has plans for six brick houses to be built for John Hennings, in Fifth avenue, at a cost of $20,000; for a four-story brick apartment house in the hill district, to cost a like sum; for the engine house in the Twenty-third ward to cost $8,000; and for an $8,000 brick house for the estate of Mrs. H. Rohrkaste, in Southern avenue.

Four $10,000 Houses.

Architect U. J. L. Peoples is receiving estimates on four reception hall brick houses to be built for John Fite, the commission merchant, in Elgin avenue, East End. The houses will be modern 12 room dwellings furnished in hard wood and provided with all the modern conveniences. The cost is estimated at $10,000 each. Mr. Fite has already built and sold a number of similar houses in the Highland avenue district, and the demand for such homes is still excellent.

Bids are being taken in the office of Architect J. Lewis Beatty for a three-story addition to a brick residence in Fifth avenue, to cost $15,000.

The sale is reported of the John Clark estate, in Emsworth borough, for $40,000. The property is said to have been bought by a Catholic sisterhood which already occupies a frame building and conducts a school on one corner of the tract. The plot includes 10 acres and is bounded by the Beaver road, Clifton lane, Shady lane, and the Ohio river. Robert and Howard Morrison own a lot 80x155 feet in Clifton lane and two other lots 40x135 feet each, also a part of the original plot, in the Beaver road are owned by outside parties. The sisters will, it is said, build a large school on the ground.

Ross Street Sale of $18,000.

The Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. has bought the A. Wilson property in Ross street for about $18,000. The lot measures 20x99 feet and is located on the east side of Ross street between Second and Third avenue. The two-story brick house now on the lot is to be torn down, to give way to an office building.

The Atlantic Refining Co. has sold to Hubbard & Co., oil manufacturers, a large plot of ground in the Eighteenth ward for $10,000. The plot has a frontage of 120 feet on the north side of Butler street, 402 feet in Voss street and 174 feet along the Allegheny river. It is vacant now except for a few old refinery buildings. Hubbard & Co. will build at once five frame houses to cost $2,000 each and in the near feature will build a $20,000 addition to their plant.
